From the Headmaster

We had a beautiful May Crowning this morning in the church due to the rainy weather. We were glad to see Melanie Loiselle, whose daughter Allison crowned Mary. Thanks to all who sent flowers to adorn the statue of Our Lady.

Our high school students are arriving home from their pilgrimage today. Thanks to Mr. Brake and Mrs. Crossey – along with Lori Brown, Julie Miller, and Barry Shewmaker, who are helping drive and supervise students.

Also thanks to the teachers and parents who helped with the two big field trips this week – the day at Holliday Park and the (rain-shortened) Indianapolis Indians Baseball Game.

Another Successful Annual Dinner!

The Light in the City Annual Dinner on Sunday was a spectacular and fun event, and we surpassed our fundraising goal. I'd like to acknowledge our development director, Tricia Crossey, and many others who took on significant responsibilities and have been working for several months on this big project: Jen Autry, Noelle Alanis, Melissa Brush, Stacey Dowell, Nicole Haywood, Nahir Kesterson, Tina Meyer, Julie Motyka, Jen Smith, Colleen Torres, Andrew and Ashley Wells.

Congratulations to Dave and Jill Olecki, the recipients of the Edie Fitzgerald Legacy Award. Since Jill could not attend, the dinner attendees were delighted to see her on a video that she and Dave made to accept the award. And special thanks to Adam Smith, who crafted the award plaque again this year.

Important – No 7:30 Mass May 9-11

There will be no 7:30 Mass at Holy Rosary next Monday-Wednesday, May 9-11. Students should arrive at school by 7:25 every morning as usual, and we'll gather in church to pray at 7:35.

Next Week Is Teacher Appreciation Week

Next week, May 9-13, is Teacher Appreciation Week at Lumen Christi. Thanks to the parents who have signed up to provide brunch and lunch for the teachers, and to all who have volunteered to supervise lunch and recess each day. More volunteers are needed to provide food and supervise. Please see the SignUpGenius links in today's Weekly Update.

Also, we have included in the Friday folder some information about you child(ren)'s teacher(s) and for Mrs. Mascari in case you'd like to contribute a little something for them for next week's Teacher Appreciation Week. Thank you!

Tuition Statements Coming

Next week we will be sending Tuition Worksheets for the 2022-23 school year to returning families. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Happy Mother's Day to all our Lumen Christi Moms!
