
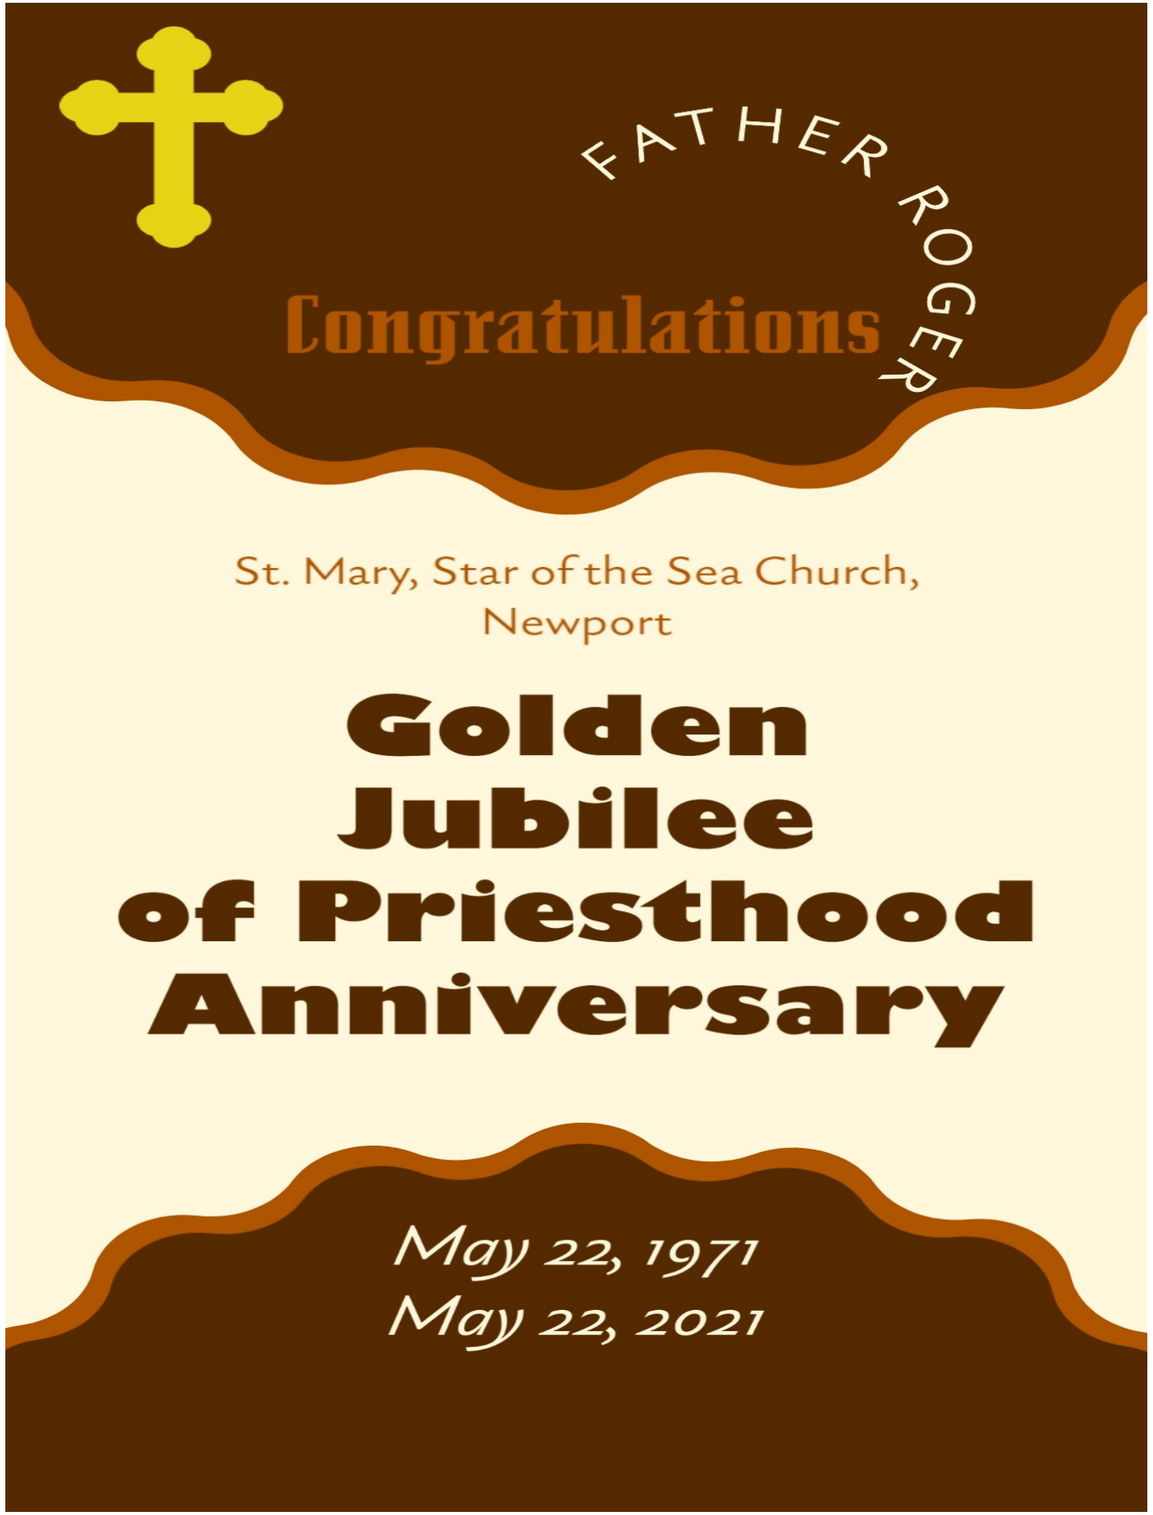
All the choicest first fruits of every kind and all the best of your offerings of every kind shall belong to the priests; the best of your dough you shall also give to the priests to bring a blessing upon your house. Ezekiel 44:30



“You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.” - Hebrew 7:17

The staff of the man whom I choose shall sprout. Thus I will rid myself of the Israelites’ grumbling against you. - Numbers 17: 20

The next day, when Moses entered the tent of the covenant, Aaron's staff, representing the house of Levi, had sprouted. It had put forth sprouts, produced blossoms, and borne ripe almonds! - Numbers 17: 23

As for you, the anointing that you received from him remains in you, so that you do not need anyone to teach you. But his anointing teaches you about everything and is true and not false; just as it taught you, remain in him. 1 John 2:27

The Lord, however, had not chosen the nation for the sake of the place, but the place for the sake of the nation.—2 Maccabees 5:19

Moses told them: “This is what the LORD has ordered to be done.” Bringing forward Aaron and his sons, Moses first washed them with water. - Leviticus 8:5-6

Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and dry them with the towel around his waist. - John 13:5

They shall teach my people to distinguish between sacred and profane and make known to them the difference between clean and unclean.– Ezekiel 44:23

You yourselves shall be called “Priests of the LORD,”“Ministers of our God” you shall be called. You shall eat the wealth of the nations and in their riches you will boast. - Isaiah 61:6

I will lavish choice portions on the priests, and my people shall be filled with my blessings— oracle of the LORD.—Jeremiah 31:14
