Twenty-Forth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Theme/Call To Worship

The scriptures today reflect the power that is found in the word “forgiveness”. Every person has the power to forgive. In our world beset with hatred, war, and discrimination, rarely do we resort to the use of this power. We are set on dominating, getting even, putting others in their place. We judge, presume intentions and motivation, yet fail to see the failures in ourselves. The power to forgive is a gift we can choose to use, for our my own well being and for others.

Introduction To The Word

Sirach 27:30—28:7: In the first reading, Sirach advises all to forgive the faults of their neighbor. Only by forgiving the sins of others, can a person expect to be forgiven of his sins.

Romans 14:7-9: In the second reading, Paul stresses that no one is his own master; we are responsible to the Lord, and we belong to him in both life and death.

Matthew 18:21-35: Today’s Gospel reading points out the difference between mercy and justice. When Peter asks how often he should forgive someone, Jesus answers, “...not seven times: I say seventy times seven times.” Jesus then narrates the parable of the Unmerciful Servant to teach two things: On the one hand, forgiveness is limitless. And on the other hand, forgiveness is an unbreakable whole; it is impossible to separate God’s forgiveness from the forgiveness we show to one another.

Adapted from Bon Venture Services, Inc. Bulletin Information and Interpretations prepared by Mr. Michael Hosemann, Holy Name of Jesus Parish New Orleans

Blessing of the Animals -

It has become a tradition in many churches to conduct a blessing of animals on the Sunday closest to the feast of St. Francis of Assisi. So, on Sunday, October 8th at 1:15p.m., we will have such a ceremony to give thanks to God for our animal companions and to pray for their continued good health. There will also be an opportunity for anyone whose pet has died within the past year to acknowledge that loss in a formal way. At a certain point in the ceremony, they will be invited to come forward and mention the name of the pet, how he/she died and one thing that made that animal companion so special in their lives.

All God’s creatures are welcome.
