The Most Holy Trinity Sunday

Theme/Call To Worship

On Holy Trinity Sunday, we celebrate today what God the Father, Son, and Spirit have revealed to us throughout salvation history: united in being, God invites us to share in the life of this divine relationship.

Introduction To The Word

Deuteronomy 4:32-34, 39-40: In the first reading, taken from the Book of Deuteronomy, Moses focuses on the wonder and power of God that brought them out of Egyptian slavery, and concludes by emphasizing two points. First, know in your heart that there are no other gods except God, and second keep all of God's statutes and commandments.

Romans 8:14-17: The second reading from Romans comes from a section in Paul's letter where he speaks about the "Spirit of God," whose function is to unite believers to Christ as "children of God" and to make believers "heirs" to God's inheritance just as a son is heir to his father's possessions.

Matthew 28:16-20: In the Gospel reading from Matthew Jesus commissions the disciples with a new threefold law: first, to "make disciples of all nations"; second, to baptize the nations; and third, to teach the nations "all that I have commanded you." Jesus then concludes with the divine assurance that "I am with you always, until the end of the age."

Next Week's Second Collection

Next week we will be participating in the Archdiocesan program to support the Black and Indian Missions. This collection will address the need to train catechists, permanent deacons, and seminarians for future generations in African American, Native American, and Alaska Native missions, schools, and religious education programs. Your sacrifice is greatly appreciated.

OLGC - First Friday - June 1st

Exposition & Benediction

Parishioners are encouraged to commit to a half hour or hour block of time, from 10:30am to 12pm. If you would like to offer this commitment add your information to the clip board found in the back of the OLGC chapel.

Catholic Underground at OLGC

Saturday, June 2nd - 7:30pm - 10:30pm

A cultural apostolate of the Franciscan Friars of the Renewal.

- The first part of the evening is Eucharistic adoration, and begins with Vespers (Evening Prayer), and ends with Benediction.
- The second part showcases Catholic artists. Here we experience the "new evangelization".

The Underground includes music, poetry, visual art, dancers, film, drama, etc. We end our evening as we began, with the prayer of the Church. Compline (Night Prayer) is simple and beautiful. It concludes with a hymn to Our Lady, Daughter Zion, Mother of the New Jerusalem.

Sunday Coffee Hour

We extend our thanks to our volunteer, for hosting this

Sunday's event, which is a wonderful way for parishioners to meet and get to know one another. We look forward to meeting you there after the 10:00am

Family Mass.

You are also invited to become a

STM Coffee Hour Volunteer.

To volunteer, please use the following link:

<http://www.signupgenius.com/go/4090a48a4ad2baaff2-coffee>.

The parishioner volunteers are the heart of this important community outreach program and your participation will go a long way toward insuring its success in the future.

CHILDREN'S STORY AND CRAFTS

Every Sunday, after the 10am Mass. All children are invited to listen to a story and do a craft in the Rochester Room. Please help us - we need parent volunteers to read and organize activities. All materials provided!

Youth & Family Sandwich-Making

Our next sandwich-making to help fill NYCP's Sunday dinner bag service is June 10th, at Noon in the STM Rochester Room. This program is a great opportunity to serve the larger community by making a neighbor's life a little better and it affords our students an opportunity to earn community service hours. This session will be our last until next September, to sign-up for this and future dates please use the following link.

STM - SPRING
 SEMI-ANNUAL APPEAL

By now, all STM parishioners should have received a mailing on our Spring Semi-Annual Appeal. Our usual focus of this appeal is to go beyond simply making up for much lower Sunday collections during the warm months and look to building up reserves for major projects.

As you are aware, we have finished the construction of a ramp for those who have difficulty with steps. We have just finished installing a chair lift between the Church and the Rectory. We just completed the installation of doors, entering into the chapel from the ramp, that open automatically.

Please read the letter carefully and respond as generously as you can.
