The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi)

Theme/Call To Worship

The readings for the solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ speak to the covenantal theology that underlies our Jewish and Christian traditions.

Introduction To The Word

Exodus 24:3-8: The first reading records the ratification of the covenant that Moses received from God on Mount Sinai. Over time, Israel developed cultic practices involving the body and blood of animal sacrifices that would ratify the covenant between God and the Israelite people.

Hebrews 9:11-15: The excerpt for today's reading, taken from the Letter to the Hebrews, refers to Jesus as the eternal "high priest" who, through the blood of the cross, has become the "mediator of the new covenant."

Mark 14:12-16, 22-26: The Gospel reading presents Mark's account of the institution of the Eucharist. It is set within the context of the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread when Jews would prepare to sacrifice a lamb as part of the Passover celebration. Jesus' words and actions expressed within the context of this celebration would not have been lost on the disciples. They most likely grasped Jesus' impending sacrifice of his own body and blood as a new covenant between God and those who believe in Jesus as the Messiah and Son of God.

STM - SPRING

SEMI-ANNUAL APPEAL

By now, all STM parishioners should have received a mailing on our Spring Semi-Annual Appeal. Our usual focus of this appeal is to go beyond simply making up for much lower Sunday collections during the warm months and look to building up reserves for major projects.

As you are aware, we have finished the construction of a ramp for those who have difficulty with steps. We have just finished installing a chair lift between the Church and the Rectory. We just completed the installation of doors, entering into the chapel from the ramp, that open automatically.

Please read the letter carefully and respond as generously as you can.

Online Giving Systems are now available to All Parishioners. To make an on-line contribution please go to the website:

www.olgcostm.org and press the DONATE button connected to the church to which you wish to send your contributions.
