Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Theme/Call To Worship

The readings for the Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time stand in sharp contrast to the reading we heard last Sunday. Today we hear about the lack of faith in Jesus and the dire consequences that follow.

Introduction To The Word

Ezekiel 2:2-5: The first reading from the Book of Ezekiel included the realization that many would reject his prophetic words. The experience of rejection, and the lack of faith, is part of the burden of being a prophet.

II Corinthians 12:7-10: In the second reading from Paul's Second Letter to the Corinthians, he speaks of "a thorn in the flesh" given to him, and "an angel of Satan" to beat him, to keep him "from being too elated" in the abundance of revelations that he received. More importantly, Paul bears witness to the trials of the prophets and apostles who work hard at passing on the faith to others who may not be open to evangelization.

Mark 6:1-6a: The Gospel reading for today is the story of Jesus' rejection at Nazareth. In Jesus' response to their rejection, he identifies himself as a prophet: "A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house." But then Mark reports, "So he was unable to perform any mighty deed there, apart from curing a few sick people by laying his hands on them." Jesus' inability to cure those who had no faith in him is consistent with Mark's theology. One's faith in Jesus is the source of healing.

Inkling New York – Books & Brew

C.S. Lewis's The Four Loves

July 8th at 12:00pm – 2:30pm

Join “Inklings New York” for their Books & Brew Discussion! A look at C.S. Lewis's seminal work The Four Loves with Paul Kucharski. Over two sessions, they will discuss Lewis's account of the natural loves — Affection, Friendship, and Eros — and how these relate to the supernatural love of Charity. They will pay particular attention to the potential dangers and disorders in each of the natural loves, and how they are built upon and purified by charity.

Meet on July 8 following the 12pm Mass in the St. Vincent Ferrer vestibule, before heading to a local establishment for the discussion.

Child Safety

The Archdiocese of New York is committed to doing all that it can to protect young children and young people from sexual abuse. As part of that effort, we periodically reach out to the Catholic community to advise them whom they may contact and what steps they can take if they have suffered abuse by someone representing the Catholic Church. Anyone who needs to report an alleged incident of sexual abuse of a minor by a priest, deacon, religious or lay person serving in the Archdiocese of New York is asked to contact Sr. Eileen Clifford, OP at 212-371-1000 X 2949 or Deacon George J. Coppola at 917-861-1762. Both may also be reached via email at victimassistance@archny.org.

Information can also be found on the Archdiocesan website, www.archny.org. In keeping with the Archdiocesan policy regarding sexual abuse of minors, this information is provided to ensure that our children remain safe and secure.

CHILDREN'S STORY AND CRAFTS

Every Sunday, after the 10am Mass. All children are invited to listen to a story and do a craft in the Rochester Room. Please help us - we need parent volunteers to read and organize activities. All materials provided!

Catholic Charities Junior Board Midnight Run

The Catholic Charities Junior Board introduces young professionals (ages 25-40) to the wide array of programs and works of Catholic Charities through volunteer opportunities, social gatherings, faith-based events, and philanthropic support. The Midnight Run is a great and casual way to get to know some of the Junior Board's members and thankfully, the Midnight Run doesn't happen at midnight, nor does it involve running! It's easy! Volunteers bring in an item of food (assignments are emailed beforehand - maybe a loaf of bread, a box of snacks, some sliced ham or even a package of napkins), and then quickly assemble lunch bags filled with sandwiches and juice boxes (the whole process is done in a speedy 20-30 minutes!). Completed lunch bags are divided amongst volunteers and each volunteer is free to distribute them to the homeless on their way home.

Volunteers will meet at 1011 First Avenue on July 11th at 7:00pm. For more information and to join this group visit:
