Catholic Bishops of Florida Urge Governor Scott to Spare the Life of Paul Howell; Community Invited to Gather in Prayer

Tallahassee (February 19, 2014) – The Florida Catholic Conference urges Governor Rick Scott to spare the life of Paul Howell by commuting his sentence to life in prison without possibility of parole. Mr. Howell is scheduled for execution on February 26, 2014 for the 1992 murder of Florida Highway Patrol Trooper James Fulford.

Mr. Howell's crime has caused untold grief; however, all human life is sacred, even the lives of those who have done great harm. Rather than deter violence, the death penalty contributes to a growing disrespect for the sacredness of human life. State-sanctioned killing promotes vengeance and makes us all complicit in the death of another human being.

We pray for all those mourning the death of Trooper Fulford, especially his family, friends and colleagues. We pray, too, for Paul Howell and his family and friends. May they find peace and healing through the grace of God and trust in his infinite goodness and justice.

Catholic faithful and members of the community are invited to gather in solidarity at the following times and locations to pray for the victims of violent crimes and their families, for persons on death row awaiting execution, and for the end of the use of the death penalty:

Archdiocese of Miami
