

Our Classroom News

Week of: September 13 - September 17

What's Happening This Week

- Specials start this week!
 - Gym uniforms on Monday
- No homework this week
- No tests this week
- Please cover notebooks sent home with clear contact paper and send back to school ASAP

A Note From Miss Gower

Hello Families! I will be sending out my weekly newsletter every Monday. I will also be posting it to my teacher page. Please remember to check my teacher page frequently! Have a great week!

A Peek At What We Are Learning

Math

We will begin math this week! Students will learn to add numbers with sums of 12, to use the reading strategy of rereading to help solve math problems, to solve and write related addition facts, and to use the count on strategy to find sums.

ELA

We will start the Reading curriculum next week. This week we will practice reading comprehension and writing.

Religion

We will begin religion this week! Students will learn: God sent Jesus to be with us, Jesus is human, Jesus did things only God can do, and Jesus taught us about God and the Holy Spirit.

Reminders

- Check purple take home folder each night
- Fill out school forms and send back to school
- Cover workbooks & notebooks in clear contact paper and send in book sock