The priests and staff of St. Columbkille are thrilled to offer Eucharistic Adoration again. Before you sign up please read through the following guidelines to better protect yourself and others.

You must sign up to attend. This will help us ensure the blessed sacrament is never left alone, and we do not exceed ten people in church.

Adoration Guidelines

- By attending adoration you are increasing your risk of catching COVID-19.
- Those who are symptomatic or who have been exposed to another with the virus within 14 days are not permitted to enter the church, in accordance with national, state and local health directives. All attendees are asked to check their temperature at home before coming to church.
- Those who are at risk because of an underlying health issue or who are 60 or older are strongly encouraged, for their own health, to avoid the risk of attending adoration.
- Enter church through the handicap door, use your elbow to press the handicap button.
- Clorox wipes are located at several stations throughout the church. Please utilize these wipes to disinfect the pew before AND after you pray.
- All hymnals and missalettes have been removed from the pews so please bring your own prayer materials.
- The faithful are obliged to wear a mask upon entering the church and during their time of adoration.
- Individuals and families are to maintain six-foot distancing between their family and other families or individuals.
- Seating has been arranged in the church to address social distancing and we ask you to adhere to these seating arrangements.
- Please leave adoration in an organized manner, wearing masks, and observing six feet of distance between other households.
- Please leave the area you prayed in safe and clean for the next individual.
