

We encourage every child to read as much as possible this summer, but due to the complexities with which families are dealing right now, there will be no assigned summer reading for the summer of 2020.