

The Fruits of Mission, Across Decades and Continents

Over 40 years ago, a Catholic mission in Ethiopia helped save the life a young man named Omer Mohammed. Their generosity planted the seeds for a gift now helping refugees on the other side of the world, many years later. By Matthew Clarke

Struggling to breathe from an acute asthma attack, a young man named Omer Mohammed sought help from one of the only places to get medical care near where he lived in Senafe, Ethiopia: A Catholic mission.

Omer never forgot the kindness of Sister Lydia and the Catholic missionaries who helped save his life and who devoted themselves to caring for all people, of all faiths, who needed help.

Later, Omer helped the sisters get land and the required permissions to get buildings built to continue their aid work and outreach to the local people.

When civil war broke out in the late 1980s, a war which subsequently saw the creation of a new country, Eritrea, Omer was forced to flee the violence as a refugee and went to Europe. Landing in Italy, Catholic charities were again there to help him and many others, showing the same compassion shown by the sisters near his hometown:

Bishop Fabbro's 2021 Christmas Message

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

We welcome with great joy the Christmas season. Despite the challenges of today, including the COVID-19 pandemic, we the faithful of our diocese will join in celebrating the birth of our Saviour and his message of God's boundless love for all people. The beautiful liturgies on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day fill us with awe and reverence as we listen once again to the gospel stories of Jesus' birth in very humble circumstances. (continued on page 4)

Chers frères et sœurs dans le Christ,

Nous accueillons avec une grande joie la période de Noël. Malgré les défis d'aujourd'hui, y compris la pandémie de COVID-19, nous, les fidèles de notre diocèse, nous rejoindrons pour célébrer la naissance de notre Sauveur et Son message de l'amour infini de Dieu pour tous les peuples. Les belles liturgies de la veille de Noël et du jour de Noël nous remplissent de crainte et de respect alors que nous écoutons à nouveau les récits évangéliques de la naissance de Jésus dans des circonstances très humbles. Editor's Note - Welcome to the New Missio

Since 1980, the Diocese of London has published a newspaper that was shared in our parishes, offices and with parents through our school board partners. We published 176 issues for over 40 years and the circulation grew to over 27.000 per issue in 2019.

For most of its life, it was simply called the Newspaper of the Diocese of London and it was an 8 to 12 page tabloid-style newspaper, published quarterly. It was not intended to be a vehicle for the latest news even in those pre-internet days. Until 2017, each issue was themed and it was intended to have a long shelf life so the faithful could take their time to enjoy the in-depth stories.

In 2017 the name was changed to Missio, and as the editor at the time noted, "Missio, from the Latin meaning "mission" refers to the task that we are given at Baptism, to be living signs of Christ's presence in the world today." A decision was made not to theme each issue as Bishop Fabbro noted in his Message, "Going forward, however, our newspaper will take a broader approach. Each issue will report on the abundant activity within our diocese, as well as items of interest for Catholic readers." Publication had to be suspended in the spring of 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic and to take the time to find a new strategy.

We will keep that approach with this new newsletter format, as the Diocese always has much good news to share. We are intended to be disciples of Jesus to go out as missionary disciples and share the Good News. The content of this newsletter will support all readers in that work and our other tasks as a Church. We are always open to new ideas and suggestions, and you can find contact and subscription information in the masthead on the right side of this page.

All future editions of this newsletter and past issues of the newspaper going back to Winter 2008 can be accessed on the diocesan website at www.dol.ca/newspaper.

"They knew it was Ramadan and that most of the refugees in our camp were Muslims, so they thoughtfully prepared our meals in accordance with our traditions and made them available after sunset," Omer explained by phone from his home northwest of Toronto.

After qualifying for refugee resettlement in Canada, Omer settled into a new life and has prospered as an importer and distributor of foodstuffs and other products from Ethiopia and Eritrea.

His background and education has given him a gift many of us strive for and never reach: fluency in multiple languages including, Saho, Afari, Arabic, Tigrigna and Amharic. Such skills and a generous spirit brought him to the attention of a local United church who needed assistance with refugees from his homeland in Africa who spoke no English. He was more than willing to donate his time as a translator and help them get settled in Canada.

Eventually he was tracked down by Gilbert Iyamuremye, Director of the Diocese of London's Refugee Ministry. In 2017 and 2019 Gilbert needed help with new refugees in the Strathroy area who spoke no English. In addition to greeting them at the airport to help them feel welcome, they also needed help navigating the many day-to-day tasks we take for granted, like banking and buying groceries. Omer was happy to help, even refusing to be reimbursed for mileage, feeling it was a chance to for mileage, feeling it was a chance to show his gratitude and pay back the Church for its help in the past.

Fast-forward to 2020 and the Refugee Ministry found itself in need of assistance. An organization that had been a long-time supporter of the indispensable work our Ministry does had to end their donations after a change in leadership caused a strategic review. Needing funds for refugee sponsorships and resettlements, Gilbert reached out to his network for help.

In addition to many other donors who have helped Gilbert raise over $12,000, Omer, remembering the generosity of the Catholic charities that had been there for him many times in the past, and knowing what it was like to have to make a new home in a new country, sent a cheque to Gilbert for $5,000.

The Diocese is thankful for, and humbled by, Omer's generous support. This story has been many years in the making, but is a remarkable example of how the centuries old charitable mission of the Catholic church continues to be an example of how good news and good works can change lives across faiths, continents and time.

The Synod in the Diocese of London

Beginning next year we will undertake a series of listening session across the Diocese and all the faithful are invited to engage in dialogue, pray, and listen to each another as we consider the Synod's theme, Being a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation and Mission. The Church cares about what you think and Pope Francis' hope is that the Synod will bring about a whole new way of being Church. The Church, he says, does not stand aloof from life, but immerses herself in the real lives of people and the issues of the day, bandaging the wounded and healing those with broken hearts.

For the Synod we will come together in our parishes, reach out to young people, Catholics not coming to church regularly and listen prayerfully to God speaking through one another. We have named our local consultation process "Together on the Road: Conversations for a Listening Church in the Diocese of London". decree (Mt 2:13).

Together, we remember that God came to walk among us as a humble man. United in our faith and with a sense of humility and confidence that, in Jesus, any obstacle can be overcome, we pledge to support and walk with each other.

The journey in faith is a common theme in the gospel passages that we read during Advent and Christmas. Mary and Joseph journey to Bethlehem to be registered (Lk 2:1). Having heard the Angel's surprising announcement, the shepherds journey with haste to the city of David and see the child lying in a manger (Lk 2:8). Mary and Joseph journey to Egypt to escape King Herod's

This coming year will be one of several important journeys for our Church.

The recent discovery of unmarked graves at former residential schools was deeply shocking. These latest revelations brought to light the shared responsibility of our Church for the harm caused by the residential schools and their disastrous consequences for Indigenous people. With them, and listening to their stories, we will continue to journey on the path of healing and reconciliation as the Indigenous people of this land struggle to find healing of decades' old wounds and to break the cycle of trauma passed down through generations.

This journey began in earnest when Indigenous people, along with Canada's bishops and other Catholics, gathered in Listening Circles after the release of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission's final report. These sessions opened dialogue with the survivors and led to the development of a plan for a delegation of Indigenous people to meet with Pope Francis in Rome. This meeting has been postponed because of the pandemic but the intention is that it will happen as soon as possible in 2022. The delegation of survivors, elders and knowledge keepers will be able to speak directly with the pope of their suffering and of how important it will be for them that he come to Canada to issue an apology. As hope was born anew with Jesus' birth in Bethlehem, I ask you to pray that this meeting with Pope Francis create a path to healing and reconciliation.

Another journey we will take in 2022 is the Synod. The word 'synod' comes from the Greek words that mean 'walking together'. This Synod will be different from those in the past. Pope Francis has declared that he wants to engage lay people – those in the pew, young and old, and those not coming to our churches. In January, our diocese will provide information about how you can participate in the Synod. There will be opportunities for you to offer your thoughts and to share your stories and your dreams for our Church. Prayerfully guided by the Holy Spirit, we will listen to each other and join with Catholics worldwide to discern how we will journey together as God's pilgrim Church on earth.

We started this year with our churches closed because of the pandemic. I am very grateful they have remained open for the last six months, even at reduced capacity. As hard as they were, the lockdowns made us appreciate all the more being able to gather in our churches to worship God, celebrate the Eucharist and other sacraments and hear the gospel proclaimed. In the coming year, with God's protection and through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mother, may our world at last journey out of the COVID-19 pandemic and return to a more normal life.

This Christmas, Bishop Dabrowski and I will remember you and your family in a special way in our prayers. The gospel tells us that there were shepherds in the fields keeping watch over their flock by night, when the Angel of the Lord and the heavenly host appeared bringing "good news of great joy for all the people" (Lk 2:8-11). May the glory of the Lord shine on you as it did on the shepherds. We wish you peace, joy and good health in the New Year.

Sincerely yours in Christ, Most Rev. Ronald P. Fabbro, CSB Bishop of London

Ensemble, nous nous souvenons que Dieu est venu marcher parmi nous en homme humble. Unis dans notre foi et avec un sens d'humilité et de confiance que, en Jésus, tout obstacle peut être surmonté, nous nous engageons à nous soutenir et à marcher les uns avec les autres.

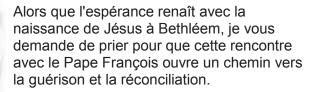

Le cheminement dans la foi est un thème commun dans les passages évangéliques que nous lisons pendant l'Avent et à Noël. Marie et Joseph se rendent à Bethléem pour se faire enregistrer (Lc 2:1). Ayant entendu l'annonce surprenante de l'Ange, les bergers se rendent en hâte vers la ville de David et voient l'enfant couché dans une mangeoire (Lc 2:8). Marie et Joseph se rendent en Égypte pour échapper au décret du roi Hérode (Mt 2:13).

Cette année à venir sera l'un des nombreux voyages importants pour notre Église.

La découverte récente de tombes anonymes dans les anciens pensionnats a été profondément choquante. Ces dernières révélations ont mis en évidence la responsabilité partagée de notre Église pour les dommages causés par les pensionnats et leurs conséquences désastreuses pour les peuples autochtones. Avec eux et en écoutant leurs histoires, nous continuerons de cheminer sur la voie de la guérison et de la réconciliation alors que les peuples autochtones de cette terre luttent pour trouver la guérison de blessures, vieilles de plusieurs décennies et pour briser le cycle des traumatismes transmis de génération en génération.

Ce voyage a vraiment commencé lorsque les peuples autochtones, ainsi que les évêques du Canada et d'autres catholiques, se sont réunis en cercles d'écoute après la publication du rapport final de la Commission de vérité et de réconciliation. Ces sessions ont ouvert un dialogue avec les survivants et ont conduit à l'élaboration d'un plan pour qu'une délégation d'Autochtones rencontre le pape François à Rome. Cette réunion a été reportée en raison de la pandémie mais l'intention est qu'elle ait lieu le plus tôt possible en 2022. La délégation de survivants, d'anciens et de gardiens du savoir pourra parler directement avec le pape de leurs souffrances et de l'importance pour eux qu'il vienne au Canada pour présenter des excuses.

Un autre voyage que nous entreprendrons en 2022 est le Synode. Le mot « synode » vient des mots grecs qui signifient « marcher ensemble ». Ce Synode sera différent de ceux du passé. Le pape François a déclaré qu'il voulait impliquer les laïcs - ceux qui se trouvent dans les bancs, jeunes et vieux, ainsi que ceux qui ne viennent pas dans nos églises. En janvier, notre diocèse fournira des informations sur la façon dont vous pourrez participer au Synode. Vous aurez l'occasion de faire part de vos réflexions et de partager vos histoires et vos rêves pour notre Église. Guidés dans la prière par le Saint-Esprit, nous nous écouterons les uns les autres et nous nous joindrons aux catholiques du monde entier pour discerner comment nous cheminerons ensemble en tant qu'Église pèlerine de Dieu sur terre.

Nous avons commencé cette année avec nos églises fermées à cause de la pandémie. Je suis très reconnaissant qu'elles soient restées ouvertes au cours des six derniers mois, même à capacité réduite. Les confinements nous ont fait apprécier d'autant plus de pouvoir nous rassembler dans nos églises pour adorer Dieu, célébrer l'Eucharistie et d'autres sacrements et entendre l'évangile proclamé. Au cours de l'année à venir, avec la protection de Dieu et par l'intercession de la Bienheureuse Vierge Marie, que notre monde sorte enfin de la pandémie de COVID-19 et retrouve une vie plus normale.

Ce Noël, Mgr Dabrowski et moi nous souviendrons de vous et de votre famille d'une manière spéciale dans nos prières. L'évangile nous dit qu'il y avait des bergers dans les champs qui surveillaient leur troupeau la nuit, lorsque l'Ange du Seigneur et l'armée céleste sont apparus apportant « une bonne nouvelle de grande joie pour tout le peuple » (Lc 2:8). Que la gloire du Seigneur brille sur vous comme sur les bergers. Nous vous souhaitons paix, joie et bonne santé pour la nouvelle année.

Sincèrement le vôtre dans le Christ, Mgr Ronald P. Fabbro, CSB Évêque de London

2021 Annual Financial Report Executive Summary

This is a summary of the 2021 Annual Financial Report covering 2019 and 2020. The full Financial Report is available at www.dol.ca/financial-reports.

The pandemic has been a very challenging time for our parishes, with lockdowns, capacity limits and ever changing situations and rules. Prior to the pandemic, we had two or three parishes providing Mass by livestream and now we have 42.

Parish collections and donations decreased 19% in 2020. Thankfully, the Canada Emergency Wage Subsidy provided some much needed financial support. Capital donations decreased 43% in 2020. Our parishes did an excellent job of controlling expenses and reducing capital (building) spending during the pandemic. On an overall basis, our parishes still earned a surplus.

Of our 115 parishes and communities, 37 incurred an operating deficit in 2019 and 36 in 2020. Parish by parish results are included in the annual financial report on the following pages and at the link above.

Our parishes received generous bequests from dearly departed Catholics of $805 thousand in 2019 and $1.1 million in 2020. The Diocesan Centre received $181 thousand of bequests in 2020. The pension fund for our priests (St. John The Evangelist Pension Fund Society) received bequests of $1.4 million in 2019 and $8 thousand in 2020. Bequests are monies or property left in the Last Will and Testament of parishioners and priests.

Operating income decreased by 36% from 2019 to 2020. The Diocese was able to reduce operating expenses by 9% in 2020. The Diocesan Centre was able to earn an operating surplus in both 2019 and 2020, although the surplus was down significantly in 2020.

Diocesan Cemeteries

In addition to our 67 parish cemeteries, there are cemeteries in Windsor-Essex, Sarnia and London managed directly by the Diocese. Diocesan managed cemeteries incurred a deficit in 2019, but were able to earn a surplus in 2020.

Accountability & Responsibility

Each parish is required to have a finance committee to provide counsel to the pastor or administrator. Parishes must submit a financial report to the diocese annually. Parishes also are required to present a financial report to their parishioners at least annually. Every parish, cemetery and diocesan bank account requires two signatures on all bank documents, including cheques.

Our consolidated diocesan and parish financial statements and our diocesan managed cemeteries' financial statements are audited annually by KPMG.

The Diocese has an internal audit program. The internal audit review takes 2-3 days per parish or diocesan entity.

Each parish and the Diocese of London are registered charities and therefore must file a charity return (similar to a tax return) by June 30 each year. Most of the information on the return is made public on the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) website.

Please contact Dave Savel (dsavel@dol.ca) at the Diocesan Centre if you are interested in serving on the Finance Committee, Audit Committee, Investment Committee or the Building and Loan Commission.

Refugee Sponsorship

The Diocese of London Refugee office submitted applications in 2019 to sponsor 376 people seeking refuge in Canada. In 2020 they submitted 357 applications to sponsor new refugees.

Even during the COVID-19 crises they submitted up to their 2020 allocation of 300 refugees plus an extra of 57 refugees. However, 2020 arrivals were greatly reduced to roughly 50% of the previous years mostly due to the international travel ban from March 2020 to September 2020.

For different reasons, including the COVID-19 pandemic, not all sponsored refugees arrived. In 2019, 247 people arrived and in 2020, 111 people arrived.

Ordination to the Permanent Diaconate

Text by Matthew Clarke | Photos by Judith Ponti-Sgargi

On November 13, 2021, with thanks to God, the Diocese of London was able to celebrate the ordination of six men to the Permanent Diaconate. The celebration was presided over by Bishop Fabbro with Auxiliary Bishop Dabrowski, several priests, deacons and families in attendance.

It was like many occasions, joyous, solemn and spiritual.

We offer our most heartfelt thanks to these men who have chosen to devote themselves to their faith and be of service to their communities.

Please welcome, and keep in your prayers, our new deacons:

- Deacon Dan Bianchi, Windsor—Lake St. Clair Catholic Family of Parishes
- Deacon Ian Brennan, St. Patrick, Lucan, and Springbank Catholic Family of Parishes
- Deacon Bryan Chevalier, Central Essex County Catholic Family of Parishes
- Deacon Dave Kraemer, Sarnia Bluewater Roman Catholic Family of Parishes
- Deacon Daniel McPhee, Perth Huron Crossroads Family of Parishes
- Deacon Dan O'Connor, Elgin Roman Catholic Family of Parishes
