GREETINGS FROM FR. BILL

Registration is now open for our Faith Formation and Sacrament Preparation programs: Religious Ed. ("Sunday School"), First Reconciliation & First Communion, and Confirmation. You'll find details and links from Chris Storm, our Director of Religious Ed., in his column below.

Reminder that this Tuesday, August 15th is a Holy Day of Obligation for the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary (not the Immaculate Conception, as our bulletin editor failed to catch last week! Ha! Sorry for the confusion!). We'll have our usual 8:15am and 7:00pm Masses (no School Mass in the afternoon, since School hasn't started yet). Only the 8:15am Mass will be live-streamed and have Holy Communion distributed to those attending in the parking lot.

Blessings to Jude Moyer, Noah Orellana Mendez, Maxine Tayo, and Lennox VanDlac, who were baptized this weekend!

We celebrated not one but two weddings last week! Congratulations and blessings to both of the happy couples: Edelyn Quiddaoen & Julio Mendez (married August 8th) and Molly Nistler & Ryan McEvoy (married August 11th).

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION | FIRST COMMUNION | CONFIRMATION

Chris Storm – cstorm@htsch.org

Registration is now open for our 2023-2024 Faith Formation programs! Please visit our website to get information, review calendars, and register for:

Religious Education (Kinder – 5th grade)

h-t.org/religious-education

First Communion (2nd grade and above)

h-t.org/first-communion

Confirmation (7th – 12th grade)

h-t.org/confirmation

Email Chris if you have any questions or aren't sure which track is right for your child/family. We love helping families find their way to the sacraments and deepen their faith!

Please note that space is limited, and priority is given to families that have been registered and active in the parish for six months or more. Families from other parishes are welcome to register, and will be contacted in September with an update about space and admission.

Interested in helping our young ones learn about their faith? We'd love to have you as a lead teacher or classroom helper! We're expecting another big year, and that means we'll need lots of helpers, both adults and students/teens. Please contact Chris as soon as possible if you're able to volunteer, so we have time to complete the Safe Environment/Child Protection requirements. Thanks!

FAREWELL FROM CHI-NHAN

Dear Holy Trinity Parish family:

It's hard to believe that my assignment here is up already. Things are so busy and lively here that there's been no time at all for me to watch the clock. Not that I've had any need to; thanks to everyone's warm welcome, I've quite enjoyed my time here!

How have I spent that time? One thing I've noted is how many Anointings of the Sick I've been privileged to witness. Next to the celebration of Holy Mass, it's the sacrament I've seen administered at Holy Trinity most frequently.

Usually we think of the effect of Holy Anointing as healing and strengthening; I was only ever told as much when I was in religious education. That's always true, of course. I always see great consolation and renewed hope in those who are anointed. But the list of its effects in the Catechism doesn't stop there at all.

Anointing of the Sick also gives to the sick person a special "union with the passion of Christ" for "the sanctification of the Church for the good of all" (CCC 1521-1522). As he hangs on the cross for the sake of the world, Jesus meets the sick person precisely in their illness: and if he has joined their cross to his own, then he has joined them to his resurrection for the salvation of the world. In other words, through Holy Anointing, the suffering person does not only receive Jesus's love, but also receives the grace to love with Jesus in a way that gives even more grace to others.

That's a powerful thought. At times, it is even a difficult one. Not all of us are sick in a literal sense, but we all have weaknesses in our lives that we wish Jesus would immediately take away. It took a long time for St. Paul himself to accept it when Jesus said to him, "My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness" (2 Corinthians 12:9). But in the end, St. Paul realized that accepting his cross meant that he did not have to be perfect himself in order to love others with the perfect love of Jesus. He realized that his weakness showed he was a human, and yet through his "union with the passion of Christ," he could love like God.

That's what I take with me from this summer with you all. We talk so much in the seminary about all the problems in the world and the Church that one of the most destructive traps for us is thinking we have to be perfect so to fix it all ourselves. The humble opening of sick hands and wounded hearts to the merciful love of Jesus is what our world needs. It's what I needed to be reminded of! And I thank you all for it.

Until we meet again! Someday soon, God in his mercy may grant the honor to this imperfect one of anointing your hands, too.

FAITH FORMATION

WEDNESDAY BIBLE STUDY

Marilyn Palma – marilynpalma@comcast.net

Join fellow Holy Trinity parishioners at Wednesday Bible Study to collectively grasp an understanding of God through His Word! Acts: The Spread of the Kingdom tells the compelling story of the first Christians, tracing how their witness of the gospel spread outward from Jerusalem and revealing how the seeds of Church structure and authority took root.

Presented by Jeff Cavins and Sarah Christmyer, this study helps us to see our place within the Church as a disciple of Christ, connecting the struggles and joys of the first disciples striving to live the life of Christ to our own struggles and joys today.

This is a 20-session study that will begin on Wednesday, September 13th and run through early April. There will be breaks for separate Advent and Holy Week studies as well. We'll meet weekly from 9:00-11:00am in the Fireside Room.

The study guide includes online access to the videos that will be watched together. Participants can purchase it directly from Ascension Press (about $46 with shipping) or you can buy it through Holy Trinity for $40 (discount due to bulk shipping rate). Financial assistance is available, so do not let the cost prevent you from participating!

Visit h-t.org/wbs to sign-up and buy the workbook, and email Marilyn Palma with any questions!

FOR WHAT IT'S WORTH: THOUGHTS ON FAITH

Erin Nieves – erin@h-t.org

Do you have unfinished business? We all need something; that's part of the reason we come to Mass each week. Even if we can't name what it is, being here gives us something we need. Most important, we were called to be here. We think it's our idea, but God had it first! He called, we heard, and now we're here at Holy Trinity in Beaverton! Whatever led us here, God is at the root of it.

Church is meant to be an integral part of our lives, from cradle to grave, and Holy Trinity is here to be an important part of your family's growth and formation. With that in mind, I have a question: Is there something missing sacramentally in your life?

Are there any unbaptized members of your family, or those baptized in another faith that want to be Catholic? Maybe you have only made some of your sacraments but not all of them, and you need to know how to finish things up?

Perhaps you have questions about marriage. Maybe you're not married but ready to begin the process? Are you married civily but not within the Church? Do you have questions about annulments?

We can help with all of that! Join us on Tuesday, September 12th from 6:30-8:00pm in the Fireside Room, and we'll help you figure out what you need and answer your questions about sacraments. We are here to take care of your family in all sacraments and circumstances, cradle to grave. +

BAPTISM PREPARATION CLASS

Pat Linton – pat@h-t.org

Our next Baptism Preparation Class is coming up on Thursday, August 31st! The class will be held in the Fireside Room from 7:00-8:30pm, and you are welcome to bring your child(ren) with you.

While it is free, we do ask that you register ahead of time so we have enough material.

Both parents and godparents are required to take a preparation class prior to having their child baptized. This class is offered every-other month, so the following class will be in October. For information on having your child baptized here at Holy Trinity and to register for the Preparation Class, go to h-t.org/baptism.

Two Feet of Love in Action

"To all people of good will who are working for social justice: never tire of working for a more just world, marked by greater solidarity!" – Pope Francis

"The Church has the God-given mission and the unique capacity to call people to live with integrity, compassion, responsibility, and concern for others. The Church's social teaching offers a guide for choices as parents, workers, consumers, and citizens. The most urgent ecclesial task of our times is the proclamation of the good news of Jesus Christ. A vital element of this new evangelization is sharing our social tradition with all Catholics so clearly that they may be engaged and challenged, encouraged and empowered to live their faith every day."

– USCCB, "Sharing Catholic Social Teaching"

Our Ministry offers opportunities to learn more about our Catholic social tradition through teachings, films, and book discussions held here at Holy Trinity and with other parishes in our Archdiocese.
