

Fr. Jefferson

Dear parishioners of Our Lady of Pompeii,

Alleluia! Christ is risen! As we celebrate the glorious feast of Easter, I extend my blessings to each of you—families, friends, and all who call Our Lady of Pompeii your spiritual home. This sacred season reminds us that love conquers all, that light shines in the darkness, and that Christ’s resurrection renews our hope. In our beautifully diverse parish community, we see a reflection of the universal Church—people of many languages, cultures, and backgrounds, all united in the joy of the risen Lord. May this Easter fill your hearts with peace and inspire you to carry the message of resurrection into every corner of your lives.

I invite you to continue walking together in faith, strengthened by the power of the Holy Spirit and the warmth of our community. Let us be witnesses of the Resurrection, not only in our prayers and celebrations, but in our acts of kindness, compassion, and justice. May the Risen Christ bless our parish, our families, and all those we encounter, as we strive to be a light for others, just as He is the light of the world. Happy Easter to you and your loved ones!

With Easter joy,

Fr. Jefferson Orlando Bariviera
