Flooding in Northeast Iowa—The Archbishop sent to the priests of the Archdiocese an email he received from Fr. Bob Gross who is pastor of some of the parishes affected by the recent flooding in Northeast Iowa. I offer you this quote from Fr. Gross' email, "... It has been quite the week for us with the horrible flooding we experienced this last week. I am pastor of four parishes in Northeast Iowa and two of them, St. Wenceslaus in Spillville and St. Aloysius in Calmar both experienced damage from the flooding. Spillville was hit the hardest. There are some families in the community who may not be able to return to their homes because of the flooding. Presently we are going to be housing a displaced family from our parishes in the old convent Neumann Hall in Calmar. Along with Spillville and Calmar, Decorah had terrible flooding as well." Father went on to offer three ways people could help with the flood recovery: (1) Through cash donations that would support their efforts in temporary housing for flood victims; (2) Help with the physical clean-up, and; (3) Through our prayers." What Father offered were acts of mercy to do for those affected by the flood. With the epic flood of 2008 that afflicted us in recent memory, it isn't hard to know the pain of those whose lives have been affected by recent flooding.

To help our neighbors in northeast Iowa, we will take up a special second collection the weekend of Sept. 10-11, 2016, to assist the support of flood victims Fr. Gross' parishes are offering. Please continue to remember them in your prayers. If you would like to help with flood clean-up, contact Fr. Gross (DBQ019@dbqarch.org). This would be a good work of mercy for individuals, families or parish groups and committees.

This Week: Sanctity of Life and Social Justice Gathering in Cedar Rapids!

You are cordially invited to hear a presentation by Tom Chapman, Executive Director of the Iowa Catholic Conference, on Thursday, September 8, 2016 at All Saints Church, 720 29th Street SE in Cedar Rapids at a Sanctity of Life and Social Justice gathering from 6:30pm to 9pm. Tom's talk is titled, 'Faithful Citizenship: Living Out Your Faith in the Voting Booth', a very important topic this election year. It will include a Catholic perspective of life issues to help us discern how to vote. The Respect Life/Social Justice office of the Archdiocese has united with Linn Area Sanctity of Life, a newly formed group of Catholics from Cedar Rapids area parishes, to sponsor this event. The evening will also include a Social Justice presentation with a focus on Fresh Start Ministries, a Jail and Prison Ministry in Linn County. Exaltation of the Cross at St. Joseph

The Cross is a sign of the great mercy of the Father, who because he loves humankind, offers his Son as a sacrificial victim for the sins of humankind. During this Jubilee Year of Mercy, the Feast of the Exaltation of the Cross should receive even greater emphasis. In an effort to give this great feast due reverence, our parish will offer parishioners the following prayerful opportunities on the Feast of the Exaltation of the Cross:

Wednesday, September 14th

Mass: 8:15 a.m.

Stations of the Cross: Noon & 7:30 pm

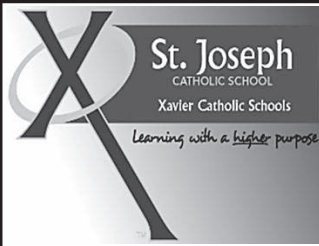

Parishioners of all ages are invited to help lift our community in prayer and holiness during Adoration on Wednesday, September 21st, between 4:00-9:00 pm.

Jesus came in human form to show us the way to the Father. As His disciples, we continue on the path He established. In our prayer and worship, we call upon the Father, ask the help of the Holy Spirit, and follow the path of the Lord. More than anything else, our example of holiness leads others to Christ, as we use our God-given gifts to reflect God's holiness in our families, among friends, and at work. When doing so, we reflect the holy face of Christ. Come participate in Adoration at St. Joseph Church to lift our parish families, priest, deacons, leaders and community in prayer as we begin a new academic year. Come to the church any time between 4-9 pm on September 21 to join your prayer with those of others in asking for the help and guidance of the Holy Spirit as we strive to reflect Christ in all that we do and for all whom we encounter and serve.

Questions? Contact Liz Lockhart at liz.lockhart@stjoesmarion.org or call 377-8402.
