They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. - Mt 2:10-11

The Pastor's Pen

Fr.
David

The Epiphany—is a multi-layered celebration. This Sunday's gospel recounts the familiar story of the Wise Men seeking the new born king through the guidance of a star. The pagan kings travel to Jerusalem, the heart of ancient Israel, to inquire of King Herod where this child might be found. The king and all his advisors were caught asleep and unaware that the prophecies regarding the Messianic King were being fulfilled. Pagans spoke to those who should have been watching and who knew of the prophecies. Once the Magi encountered the infant Jesus, they were so affected by it that they travelled home by another route, meaning that their lives were changed because they saw him and did him homage.

The Epiphany reveals that Jesus came for the Chosen People of Israel and for the Gentiles, all people from every place and nation. Jesus' Incarnation (his coming as man) calls us to encounter him just as the Wise Men did, to see and be affected by him. An encounter with him in a personal way changes our lives and we begin a journey, to live, by a different route enlightened by faith in Christ Jesus. So, the story of the Epiphany, ancient and new, continues through every age and generation.

Kairos Retreat—is a Catholic retreat designed for high school juniors and has been offered by Xavier High School for several years. It has had an impact on scores of students who have participated in it. I will be serving as the spiritual director for the one being conducted this weekend. Fr. Wayne Droessler will cover Masses and confessions while I am away.

Thanks for Christmas Ministries and Decoration—Over the past couple of weeks, the bulletin deadlines have changed because of the holidays. Hence, now is the opportune time to thank all of those who were part of the planning, decoration for and the ministries we enjoyed during the celebration of the Christmas liturgies. It always takes a substantial effort by many in service of God, some unseen and unheard, who contributed their time and talents to help make our celebration of Christmas a meaningful and hospitable occasion. Thanks to all who offered their gifts to God in service of our parish.

Out of the Office—I will be on pilgrimage to the Holy Land from January 16-26, 2016.
