The Culture of Life—We have heard much about the Culture of Death so it is time to turn our attention to building the Culture of Life. The foundational source of identity for such a culture is that we are all created in the image and likeness of God. We are loved into existence and God intended that we be in a loving relationship with him unto eternal life. Jesus saved us from sin, an act of God's pure love, so that we can live in God's love.

The Golden Rule summarizes what our lives are about. We indeed are created in love by God to love him. To love God means that we love our neighbor, and as followers of Jesus, to witness to our Savior and invite our neighbors into a relationship with him as his disciples.

Life isn't always easy and we all live with the wound of Original Sin. We can understand ourselves falsely and live in a world that teaches us to be narcissistic, to evaluate the worth of our lives according to productivity and to understand pain and suffering as either a punishment from God or something to be avoided at all costs even if it means medicating it with addictions or "mercifully" taking our own lives through assisted suicide. But, the truth is we belong to God not out of a sense of him owning us, but that we are his beloved and our dignity and value comes from God and not from any worldly standards. We are always precious in God's sight.

When people hurt, struggle or are afraid because of an unplanned pregnancy or a loved one is failing due to dementia or Alzheimer's disease; when a person experiences a chronic or debilitating disease or illness, is suffering, isolated and alone, the follower of Jesus takes action as one of his missionary disciples by offering assistance, comfort and prayer to contradict the hopeless messages and practices of the Culture of Death. Jesus encourages us not to be afraid, but to know that he is with us until the end of time to assist us in knowing what to do and say in these circumstances. You don't have to be perfect, but love God, grow closer to Jesus and love your neighbor the best you are able to do. Proclaim life and the love of God in life.

Would You Like a 65% Iowa Tax Credit? If you file an Iowa Income Tax Return, your contributions to the Our Faith School Tuition Organization (STO) receive a 65% tax credit. That means for every $1000 you donate, you receive an Iowa income tax credit of $650, which reduces your Iowa tax liability by $650. In addition, the entire amount of your gift qualifies for federal deductibility. And that gift you made? It helps make a Catholic school education affordable for every child, regardless of their families' financial situation. It really is that simple. Visit www.OurFaithSto.org or call the Archdiocese of Dubuque at 800-876-3546 ext. 219 or 307 to learn more.
