RESPECT LIFE MONTH—Timothy Cardinal Dolan, Chair of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops Committee on Pro-Life Activities, has written this year's annual message for Respect Life Month. It is inspirational and encouraging, especially in light of the aggressive hostility and opposition found culturally and politically in our country regarding the respect of life from conception to natural death. I invite you to read a condensed version of his missive and ponder this message of encouragement and hope.

My dear friends in Christ:

... We mark the month of October as Respect Life Month. Looking back over the last year, there's been a lot of uncertainty, suffering, and heartache. Between tragedies that occur in the public eye and trials that take place in our personal lives, there's no shortage of reasons we cry out to God. . . (But), we have an anchor of hope to cling to. . . God says to us, "Do not fear: I am with you" (Isaiah 41:10). . . .

God isn't a detached, distant observer to our pain; the Eternal Son became man and Himself experienced immense suffering—for you and for me. His wounds indicate the very essence of our identity and worth: we are loved by God.

There are times we may doubt the value of our own lives or falter at the thought of welcoming and embracing the life of another . . . Reflecting on the healed wounds of the Risen Christ, we can see that even our most difficult trials can be the place where God manifests his victory. He makes all things beautiful ... (and) new. He is the God of redemption . . . And, He is always with us. . . .

As followers of Jesus Christ, we know that our identity and our mission are two sides of the same coin . . . We are not only invited to follow and take refuge in God, our stronghold, but we are also commissioned to reach out to one another, especially to the weak and vulnerable.

Building a culture of life isn't something we just do one month of the year, or with one event or initiative—it's essential to who we are. It happens through our daily actions, how we treat one another, and how we live our lives.

How do we respond when our aging parents are in failing health? Do they know how much we love them and cherish each day? Do we ensure they know they are never a burden to us? In our own challenging times, do we ask for support? When others offer a helping hand, do we receive it? When our friend becomes pregnant in difficult circumstances, do we show compassion that tangibly supports her and helps her welcome the life of her new little one?

Sometimes, we may not be sure exactly what to do, but let's not allow the fear of doing the wrong thing or saying the wrong thing keep us from living out our missionary call. We don't need to have everything figured out all at once. Let's remember the guidance of Our Blessed Mother, the first disciple: "Do whatever He tells you" (John 2:5). . . .
