4 Let's help Fr. Mark stay warm this winter!

Many have been asking about Fr. Mark and his first-ever winter in Iowa and how you might be able to help. If you are able, we invite you to contribute either cash, checks or Visa/Mastercard gift cards so that he can purchase from a store of his choice. This will allow him to purchase the warm clothing, outerwear and bedding that he needs to survive the Iowa winter. Donations may be dropped off at the parish office or placed in the offertory basket at Mass. Please make checks payable to Fr. Mark Kwenin directly and designate "Winter Donation" in the memo line. Cards or notes of welcome or thanks for his ministry are appreciated too! Thank you.

Guess Who's Coming To Dinner? 2018

Back by popular demand, the Parish Life Committee is sponsoring a fun way to meet fellow parishioners other than just seeing them on your way in and out of church! Mark your calendars for Sunday, January 28, 2018. If you are interested in becoming a host for a dinner group of adult parishioners, please contact: Sharron Konzen, at 319-350-9861 or rkonzon@yahoo.com.

Hosts:

- Decide how many people you are comfortable hosting
- Prepare the entrée.
- Provide a drink.

Guests:

- Provide salad and vegetable.

Following the meal, everyone will meet at the Church Hall for dessert. The fun part is that no one will know who is in their dinner party, even the host, until guests arrive. More details to follow in future bulletins.

Advent Giving Project Kick-off Weekend:

Gift tags are available for our annual Parish Advent Giving Project on the trees in the entry ways. Final return date for all gifts is: December 3. Please return unwrapped, donated gifts by December 3 and place them on the steps of the sanctuary at any Mass. If you prefer, a monetary donation may be made by placing a check payable to "St. Joseph Church" with "Advent Giving Project" in the memo line, in the offertory basket during Mass. St. Joseph Parish will offer hope to parish and local families and seniors this Advent season. Please join us in spreading our blessings from Christ throughout our community this Advent! ## Pastor's Pen

Fr.
David
O'Connor

Business Manager Position - I am pleased to announce that parishioner Doug Brock has accepted the position of Business Manager for our parish. Doug has been in leadership positions in the parish, including the Catholic School Board, the Pastoral Council and the Finance Council. His start date is January 2, 2018. We look forward to enjoying Doug's expertise and leadership which includes experience from the private and public sectors of the business community.

Thanksgiving - I was reflecting this week on a gospel passage from Luke 17: 7-20. The abridged version reads as this teaching by Jesus to the apostles: "Who among you would say to your servant who has just come in from plowing . . . , 'Come here immediately and take your place at table?' Would he not rather say to him, 'Put on your apron and wait on me while I eat and drink . . . ?' Is he grateful to the servant because he did what was commanded? So it should be with you. When you have done all that you have been commanded say, 'We are unprofitable servants; we have done what we were obliged to do.'"

The passage is about serving the Lord as his followers. Service comes in many forms and especially known through the corporal works of mercy: feeding the hungry, sheltering the homeless, welcoming the stranger, visiting the imprisoned, etc. The spiritual works of mercy apply too by counseling the doubtful, instructing the ignorant (those who don't know or are mistaken about the faith), forgiving injuries, praying for the living and the dead, etc. We live in an incentivized society, that is, you give to me and I'll give something back to you as a prize or a way of saying thank you. I don't think that is what Jesus had in mind in this gospel. The follower of Jesus serves because of a relationship with God in that God loved us first, bought us back from sin and saved us. He has given the gift of faith to his followers, which isn't restricted to knowledge about God, but occurs within the context of a living relationship with God. We serve because of our gratitude for the relationship with God, the salvation and forgiveness we have in Christ and for the many graces God bestows in our lives. We don't serve to earn God's love or because of a sense of entitlement. Were it not for his grace, we would be lost.

This gospel and the celebration of Thanksgiving reminds us of the attitude and response to God is that of perpetual thanksgiving. If we operate from that worldview, life will still have its joys and challenges, but our hearts will always be open to the mighty things God has done and continues to do in our lives no matter what and come what may.

Advent Mass Schedule - With Christmas occurring on a Monday this year, the First Sunday of Advent falls on December 3rd. That means we will have a very short Advent. It will be three weeks long concluding on Sunday, December 24th. Since the Fourth Sunday of Advent and Christmas Eve will coincide this year, the ordinary weekend Mass schedule will change for the celebration of the Fourth Sunday of Advent. There will only be two Masses to fulfill the Sunday obligation for the Fourth Sunday of Advent. They will occur on:

Saturday, December 23

At

4:30 PM and 6:30 PM.

There will be no Sunday morning, December 24th, Masses to celebrate the Fourth Sunday of Advent. All Masses that day will be for Christmas, to begin in the afternoon as has been done in previous years.
