Please contact Fr. Tony (Mount Mercy Chaplain) at : tadawu@mtmercy.edu with any questions.

BLESSING OF A CHRISTMAS TREE

The use of the Christmas tree is relatively modern. Its origins are found in the medieval mystery plays that depicted the tree of paradise and the Christmas light or candle that symbolized Christ, the Light of the world. According to custom, the Christmas tree is set up just before Christmas and may remain in place until the Solemnity of Epiphany. The lights of the tree are illuminated after the prayer of blessing. In the home the Christmas tree may be blessed by a parent or another family member, in connection with the evening meal on the Vigil of Christmas or at another suitable time on Christmas Day.

When all have gathered, a suitable song may be sung.

Leader: In the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit

Response: Amen.

The leader may greet those present in the following words:

Leader: Let us glorify Christ our light, who brings salvation and peace into our midst, now and forever.

Response: Amen

In the following or similar words, the leader prepares those present for the blessing:

Leader: My brothers and sisters, amidst signs and wonders Christ Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea: his birth brings joy to our hearts and enlightenment to our minds. With this tree, decorated and adorned, may we welcome Christ among us; may its lights guide us to the perfect light.

Leader/Reader: Brothers and sisters, listen to the words of the prophet Ezekiel:

Thus says the Lord God: "I, too, will pluck from the crest of the cedar the highest branch. From the top of a tender shoot I will break off and transplant on a high, lofty mountain."

Leader/Reader: The Word of the Lord.

Response: Thanks be to God.

The intercessions are then said.

Leader: Let us ask God to send his blessing upon us and upon this sign of our faith in the Lord.

Response: Lord, give light to our hearts.

Leader: That this tree of lights may remind us of the tree of glory on which Christ accomplished our salvation, let us pray to the Lord.

Response: Lord, give light to our hearts.

Leader: That the joy of Christmas may always be in our homes, let us pray to the Lord.

Response: Lord, give light to our hearts.

Leader: That the peace of Christ may dwell in our hearts and in the world, let us pray to the Lord.

Response: Lord, give light to our hearts.

After the intercessions the leader invites all present to say the Lord's Prayer.

The leader says the following prayer with hands joined:

Leader: Lord our God, we praise you for the light of creation: the sun, the moon, and the stars of the night. We praise you for the light of Israel: the Law, the prophets, and the wisdom of the Scriptures. We praise you for Jesus Christ, your Son: he is Emmanuel, God-with-us, the Prince of Peace, who fills us with the wonder of your love. (Continue next column)

4

Leader Continued: Lord God, let your blessing come upon us as we illumine this tree. May the light and cheer it gives be a sign of the joy that fills our hearts. May all who delight in this tree come to the knowledge and joy of salvation. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Response: Amen

The lights of the tree are then illuminated. The leader concludes the rite by signing himself or herself with the sign of the cross and saying:

Leader: May the God of glory fill our hearts with peace and joy, now and forever.

Response: Amen.

The blessing concludes with a verse from "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel"

All: O come, thou dayspring, come and cheer our spirits by thine advent here; disperse the gloomy clouds of night and death's dark shadow put to flight. Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel.

BLESSINGS OF A MANGER OR CHRISTMAS SCENE

In its present form the custom of displaying figures depicting the birth of Jesus Christ owes its origin to St. Francis of Assisi, who made the Christmas crèche or manger for Christmas Eve of 1223. The blessing of the Christmas manger or nativity scene may take place on the Vigil of Christmas or at another suitable time. When the manger is set up in the home, it is appropriate that it be blessed by a parent or another family member.

All make the sign of the cross:

Leader: Our help is in the name of the Lord.

Response: Who made heaven and earth.

Reader/Leader: Brothers and sisters, listen to the gospel according to St. Luke:

In those days a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that the whole world should be enrolled. This was the first enrollment, when Quirinius was governor of Syria. So all went to be enrolled, each to his own town. And Joseph too went up from Galilee from the town of Nazareth to Judea, to the city of David that is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family of David, to be enrolled with Mary, his betrothed, who was with child. While they were there, the time came for her to have her child, and she gave birth to her firstborn son. She wrapped him in swaddling clothes and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

Reader: The Gospel of the Lord.

Response: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

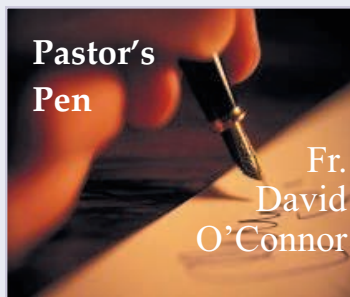

The leader prays with hands joined:

God of every nation and people, from the very beginning of creation you have made manifest your love: when our need for a Savior was great you sent your Son to be born of the Virgin Mary. To our lives he brings joy and peace, justice, mercy, and love.

Lord, bless all who look upon this manger; may it remind us of the humble birth of Jesus, and raise our thoughts to him, who is God-with-us and Savior of all, and who lives and reigns forever and ever.

Response: Amen.

Christmas Greetings - On this hallowed Christmas Eve, I wish to extend on behalf of the clergy, parish and school staff our warm greetings to you and your family for a Merry Christmas.

Even in the midst of the challenges, conflicts, toils and divisions we experience in our society, world and perhaps in our personal lives, we are people of hope because we believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Savior, the Son of God. Christmas is a festive commemoration of the birth of Jesus two millennia ago rather than an annual replay of that sacred event. God's love knows no bounds as Jesus emptied himself and became a human being like us in all things but sin. The Incarnation of Jesus is a mystery, that he, fully God and fully man, would humble himself in a supreme act of self-abnegation in order to save us in and through our own humanity. God didn't have to do any of this; it was a choice made by his boundless love. Jesus is the Light that shines in the darkness and the voice of love that overwhelms the discordant cacophony that trumpets the air waves, cable connections and information super highway. Listen to and for the cry of the Infant King who even before the cross, draws all people unto himself. He is the only path to the solace and peace you seek. May we never lose sight of the gift we celebrate at Christmas.

Christmas Mass Attendance—to help you with planning which Christmas Mass you will attend, I offer some historical data regarding past Mass attendance:

- 4 PM in the church—packed
- 4 PM in the school—almost full
- 6:30 PM in the church—although a new time, it is nearly full
- 9:00 PM in the church—although a new time, usually half full
- 9 AM in the church Christmas Day—approaching full but is roomy.
