Annual Appeal for Catholic Charities this Weekend—I quote Archbishop Jackels regarding the appeal being conducted this weekend: “Helping those who cannot protect or provide for themselves is an essential practice of our Catholic religion; indeed, it is the mark of authenticity for followers of Jesus. The Archdiocesan Office of Catholic Charities helps us help the poor: organizing the work, enlisting volunteers, and securing donations, such as with this annual appeal. As you consider how much you will share in the annual appeal, think about what Jesus said: Give and gifts will be given to you ... The measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you.” Please be generous with your contributions.

Regarding your gift, it is very important that you return your contributions directly to Catholic Charities by mail in the envelope provided with the appeal letter sent to your home, or with the form provided in the bulletin insert. This practice ensures that Catholic Charities is able to properly acknowledge each gift, provide appropriate tax documentation and extend their gratitude personally.

Lunch & Learn: A Monastery Experience

The monks of New Melleray Abbey invite you to “Lunch and Learn” and experience a rare glimpse into the life of the Trappist monks including their work of Trappist Caskets.

During your visit, a monk will provide a brief introduction to the cloistered life at New Melleray Abbey. You will observe the monks as they gather in their limestone church and chant mid-day prayers, followed by a hearty lunch in the monastery guesthouse. During lunch, your hosts will discuss Trappist traditions and describe the monks’ corporal work of mercy ministry of Trappist Caskets. A casual discussion of end of life issues and mindful planning (a Catholic perspective) will bring the lunch to an end. After lunch, you will be invited to tour the monastery woodworking facility, where artisan caskets and urns are handcrafted. The experiences will begin at 11:15 and conclude by 1:00pm. People of all faiths and traditions are welcome. In keeping with the monastic tradition of hospitality, there is no fee associated with this unique experience. All we ask is that you gather your adult friends & colleagues, (12-25 adults) and contact us to coordinate a time to host your group. To register call 888-433-6934 (ask for Marjorie or Dena) or email us at: info@trappistcaskets.com.

St. Joseph Offers Small Class Sizes

A unique aspect of St. Joseph Catholic School is the class size. The average size of our kindergarten through eighth grade classes is sixteen students. With small class sizes, teachers have more one-on-one time with students. Smaller class size allows students to be more comfortable participating in class discussions and it creates a sense of community among their peers. Parents feel comfortable contacting teachers knowing their children are receiving individual attention. Teachers are better able to identify signs of learning difficulties as well as strengths the students possess, helping them provide students the best learning experiences to maximize academic success. These are just a few of the many benefits of having a small class size.
