Divine Mercy Sunday—is always the Second Sunday of Easter (a week after Easter Sunday). Today's liturgical celebration emphasizes the great mercy of God for the sinner. In the gospel, Thomas' doubts about the Risen Lord are resolved upon his experience of the nail marks in Jesus' hands and feet and his pierced side. Reflecting upon Thomas' experience and confession of faith, we are encouraged to believe that not only is Jesus our crucified and risen savior, but that the graces of his abundant mercy for the sinner endure forever. Never fear or hesitate to approach Jesus, our intercessor, who is familiar with our burdens and afflictions to drink deeply of the well of the life giving waters of his mercy. God's mercy is eternal!

Plenary Indulgence Associated with Divine Mercy Sunday—A decree from the Apostolic Penitentiary (a Vatican Congregation associated with the forgiveness of sins) announced that in order "to ensure that the faithful would observe this day (Divine Mercy Sunday) with intense devotion, the Supreme Pontiff himself established that this Sunday be enriched by a plenary indulgence...so that the faithful might receive in great abundance the gift of the consolation of the Holy Spirit. In this way, they can foster a growing love for God and for their neighbor, and after they have obtained God's pardon, they in turn might show a prompt pardon to their brothers and sisters."

The plenary indulgence is granted under the usual conditions (sacramental confession, Eucharistic communion and prayer for the intentions of Supreme Pontiff) to the faithful who, on the Second Sunday of Easter or Divine Mercy Sunday, in any church or chapel, in a spirit that is completely detached from the affection for a sin, even a venial sin, take part in the prayers and devotions held in honor of Divine Mercy, or who, in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament exposed or reserved in the tabernacle, recite the Our Father and the Creed, adding a devout prayer to the merciful Lord Jesus (e.g. Merciful Jesus, I trust in you!).

Additional provisions are offered for those who are impeded from fulfilling these requirements but wish to acquire the plenary indulgence. The full text of the decree of the Apostolic Penitentiary may be found at: <http://www.divinemercysunday.com>.

New Associate Pastor—I received word from Archbishop Jackels this week that St. Joseph will welcome Fr. Mark Kwenin from the Archdiocese of Cape Coast, Africa, as our new associate pastor, effective 11 July 2017. I don't know much about Fr. Kwenin, except that I believe he will be coming to the United States for the first time and is about fifty years old. I will have more to share as the time draws nearer for his arrival at St. Joseph.

First Communions—During the Easter Season, we will be celebrating the First Holy Communion of our students at the weekend Masses. Please pray for them as they receive Our Lord's Body and Blood for the first time. May they remain close to the Mass and the Holy Eucharist all the days of their lives! The First Communions will occur:

- Saturday, April 29th during the 4:30 PM Mass
- Sunday, April 30th during the 10:30 AM Mass
- Saturday, May 6th during the 4:30 PM Mass
- Sunday, May 7th during the 10:30 AM Mass

Congratulations to all our RCIA participants who received Sacraments of Initiation at the Easter Vigil! Please continue to pray for them and welcome them to our community of faith!
