The Pastor's Pen

Ascension Thursday—occurs on May 25th this year. Many dioceses in the United States, including our own, have received permission to transfer the celebration to the Sunday following the actual day of the solemnity. Hence, we will celebrate the Ascension at the weekend liturgies May 27-28.

Pentecost Sunday—will be celebrated the weekend of June 3-4, and is the culmination of our observance of the Easter Season. The liturgical color is red which signifies the Holy Spirit in terms of the tongues of fire (red) that appeared over the heads of the disciples on Pentecost. I've noticed that a lot of people wear red that day either intentionally or accidentally. Whatever the case, feel free to wear red as a way of participating in the birthday of the Church through the gift of the Holy Spirit.

Traditionally, preparation for Pentecost includes the Novena (nine days) to the Holy Spirit. It can be accessed on EWTN's website at this address: <https://www.ewtn.com/devotionals/pentecost/seven.htm>. The novena begins on the Friday of the Sixth Week of Easter, which this year is May 26th. Precede each daily recitation with the following:

Prayer To The Holy Spirit+

V. Come, O Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of Thy faithful, and enkindle in them the fire of Thy love.

R. Send forth Thy Spirit and they shall be created.

V. And Thou shalt renew the face of the earth

V. Let us pray --- Oh God Who didst instruct the hearts of the faithful by the light of the Holy Spirit, grant us in the same Spirit to be truly wise and to ever rejoice in His consolations, through Jesus Christ Our Lord. Amen.
