The Pastor's Pen

Fr. Mark Kwenin—I anticipate that Fr. Mark will arrive at St. Joseph to begin his assignment on July 6th. Receptions will be held in the church hall after each mass the weekend of July 8th and 9th. Please plan to attend and welcome to Fr. Mark.

Since Father has not been in the United States until now and has no experiences of parish life in our country, the first task upon his arrival is to help him to settle into his new home and environment. That is an important part of enculturation.

Transportation is also essential and would be an impairment to ministry if it weren't being addressed even before Father's arrival. Buying a car, registering it and obtaining insurance is a time consuming, prolonged task. Fr. Mark Murphy, a native son of St. Joseph, donated his old car to Fr. Kwenin. We are deeply grateful to Fr. Murphy for his thoughtfulness and kindness. Ted Lockhart, the parish mentor for Fr. Kwenin, has been working with him to license the car and obtain insurance before his arrival. What a blessing this has been!

We look forward to Fr. Kwenin's arrival this coming week. You have a wonderful opportunity to welcome him into ministry as your associate pastor and to help him learn how to effectively minister to you. Even though he is from a different country and speaks English with an accent to which we will need to attune our ears, he will be your priest and a full partner in ministry with me. We are about to receive a great blessing, thanks be to God!

Parish Mission Appeal: The annual parish mission appeal conducted throughout the Archdiocese of Dubuque to support the priests, religious, and laity working in missions domestically and abroad, is this weekend. Fr. Kambale Sambya Zawadi Jean-Marie, osc, will be speaking at all the Masses. Information about the appeal is detailed in the bulletin insert. Contribution envelopes are found in the pews. If using a check, please write it out to St. Joseph Parish and make a note in the memo that the contribution is for the Crosier missions. You are kindly asked to return it in the collection basket or by post. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

Rosaries in Support of Christians in the Holy Land

Rosaries brought back to St. Joseph from the Holy Land pilgrimage are available for purchase outside the main church entrance on this weekend. Simple in design and yet profound in symbolic significance, these rosaries were handcrafted from the wood of olive trees by Christian families living in Bethlehem. Your purchase of a rosary helps support these families who, despite hardships and obstacles, strive to witness to Christ's message of love. The olive wood rosaries are available in the parish office and are $15 each.

Parish Prayer Ministry Opportunity: The Seven Sisters Apostolate

The Seven Sisters Apostolate is a call to strengthen the Church by ensuring that a Holy Hour is prayed in front of the Blessed Sacrament each day of the week for the sole intention of a specific priest or bishop. Each member commits to a Holy Hour on a distinct day of the week, thus covering a complete week. The commitment is to that day; the Seven Sister may pray at any time on that day. For the past year, a Seven Sister have been praying one hour, one day each week for Fr. O'Connor's intention. We are ready to expand the Seven Sisters Apostolate to include more women of St Joseph.

Dear St. Joseph Parishioners,

As I depart from staff at St. Joseph and move to Dubuque with my family to begin my new position as the Director of Family Life for the Archdiocese of Dubuque, I want to thank this parish community for being so welcoming to my family during our four years at St. Joseph. The Lord has blessed us through the opportunity to have all of you in our lives. We will always look back on our time here with fondness. I would, in particular, like to thank all who have offered kind words and generous gifts in recent weeks as we have prepared for our departure. We have been overwhelmed by the outpouring of love expressed to us. I would also like to thank the parish staff for being a wonderful team to work alongside. And, most of all, I would like to thank Fr. Dave O'Connor for being an incredible pastor to collaborate with and learn from.

I look forward to staying connected with the St. Joseph community in my new role. Please feel free to reach out to me at the Archdiocese Family Life Office at dbqcfl@dbqarch.org or 563-556-2580, extension 233. May God continue to bless and guide the St. Joseph parish community.

In Christ,

Matt Selby
