Missionary Visit July 1st & 2nd

Fr. Zawadi, OSC, will be visiting our parish the weekend of July 1 - 2, to speak to us about the Crosiers' missions in Papua, Indonesia.

The Crosier Fathers and Brothers have been serving people throughout Indonesia for nearly ninety years. In 1958, the Crosiers began serving the Asmat people in the region of Papua, Indonesia. Helping the Asmat people with socioeconomic, education and health challenges is a pastoral priority. Currently, ten Crosiers from Indonesia serve four parishes in the Diocese of Agats-Papua, ministering in many ways. Through their strong commitment to education, the Crosiers began a Catholic vocational-technical school to serve children from low-income families, preparing them to enter the workforce. This school connects the Catholic Church and the whole of society in Indonesia. The Crosiers strive to help empower the people of Papua by teaching them self-sustainability. Funding is vital to send local people to study to become catechists, teachers and nurses. Critical funds are also needed to support the Crosier mission in Indonesia and its numerous ministries. Envelopes for your donation can be found in the pews the weekend of Fr. Zawadi's visit and can be used to return your check made out to St. Joseph Church through the collection at Mass that weekend or the following weekends, or to the parish office. Please welcome Fr. Zawadi! For more information visit www.crosier.org

Support for Family Caregivers

The first step to successfully manage as a family caregiver is to identify as one. If you live with a person with a chronic illness who depends on you to care for them, you are a family caregiver. We have resources to help you balance your responsibilities. Call the family Caregivers Center of Mercy at (319) 221-8866 or visit mercy.care.org/familycaregiverscenter.

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi)—On Holy Thursday, we observe and celebrate the institution of the Eucharist by Jesus during the Last Supper. The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, the feast we celebrate today, accentuates our devotion to the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. The origins of this feast are found in the Thirteenth Century when a German priest, while celebrating Mass at Bolsena, Italy, in 1263, raised the consecrated host to discover blood trickling down his hands and on to the altar. Following an investigation, this event was declared authentic and a miracle, which led Pope Urban IV to institute this feast a year later. The blood-stained corporal (the white cloth placed on the altar upon which the chalice and paten sit), can be viewed at the Cathedral in Orvieto, Italy.

Five hundred years earlier, a priest celebrating Mass in Lanciano, Italy, witnessed the host change shape to look like real flesh and the wine assume the attributes of real blood. The Church thoroughly investigated the occurrence and concluded that the substances were human flesh and blood. Later scientific studies have shown that the flesh consists of muscle tissue from a human heart and the blood type, AB, is the same type found on the Shroud of Turin. The blood contains proteins in the same proportions as found in a specimen that might be taken today. This Eucharistic miracle may be viewed in Lanciano.

Jesus said in St. John's gospel proclaimed today, "Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day" (Jn 6: 53-54). Sometimes our faith in the Eucharist wavers. People may claim that it isn't what Christ said it is because the Eucharist looks and tastes like bread and wine. Jesus is symbolically present, they say, rather than being really present. Throughout the centuries, God has sent us love notes through his Son to address the skepticism that may creep into our understanding of the Eucharist as the miracles I recounted demonstrate, of which there are many more. We need not doubt, but worship. Look not at the Eucharist with the eyes of man, but with the eyes of faith to see Christ really present. Come, let us adore him!

Matt Selby Reception—You are invited to stop by the church basement after Mass to celebrate Matt's ministry with us as Director of Adult Faith Formation. This would be a great time to express your appreciation for his work and to say farewell to him, Anna, his wife, and family as they prepare to depart for Dubuque. Matt will begin his work as Director of Family Life for the Archdiocese of Dubuque on July 1st.

Parish Prayer Ministry Opportunity: The Seven Sisters Apostolate

The Seven Sisters Apostolate is a call to strengthen the Church by ensuring that a Holy Hour is prayed in front of the Blessed Sacrament each day of the week for the sole intention of a specific priest or bishop. Each member commits to a Holy Hour on a distinct day of the week, thus covering a complete week. The commitment is to that day; the Seven Sister may pray at any time on that day. For the past year, a Seven Sister have been praying one hour, one day each week for Fr. O'Connor's intention. We are ready to expand the Seven Sisters Apostolate to include more women of St Joseph. Please contact Rosemary Bauer at bauerr1983@my.uwstout.edu for more information about joining this ministry.

Rosaries in Support of Christians in the Holy Land

Rosaries brought back to St. Joseph from the Holy Land pilgrimage are available for purchase outside the main church entrance on this weekend. Simple in design and yet profound in symbolic significance, these rosaries were handcrafted from the wood of olive trees by Christian families living in Bethlehem. Your purchase of a rosary helps support these families who, despite hardships and obstacles, strive to witness to Christ's message of love. The olive wood rosaries are $15 each, payable by check (made out to St. Joseph Church) or cash. These rosaries would make wonderful gifts for Christmas or for Father's Day!
