WELCOME

A deacon or assisting minister greets us and encourages us to pray in these or similar words:

For our sake, our Lord Jesus Christ became like the grain of wheat that falls to the earth and dies, so that it may bear much fruit. (John 12:24) He invited us to follow him along this path when he told us that "the one who loves his life loses it, and the one who hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life." (John 12:25) Yet we are attached to our life. We do not want to abandon it; we want to keep it all for ourselves. We want to hold on to it, not to give it away. But he goes before us, showing us that it is only by giving away our life that we can save it. As we walk with him on the Way of the Cross, he leads us along the way of the grain of wheat, the way of a fruitfulness which leads to eternity. (Joseph Cardinal Ratzinger, Good Friday Way of the Cross, 2005)

As we stop to pray at each station, take time to enter the story with your heart and imagination:

What do you see? What do you hear?

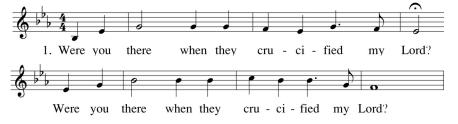

With whom do you identify? What do you feel?

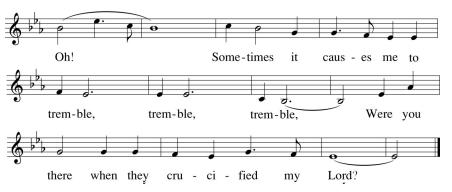

What part of yourself or your life can you give to Jesus to unite with his offering to the Father?

HYMN

Tune: WERE YOU THERE, 10 10 with refrain; African-American spiritual; harm. by Robert J. Batastini, b.1942

OPENING PRAYER

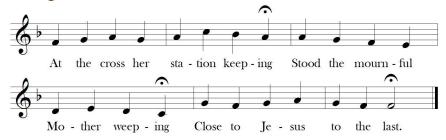

Presiding minister, facing East:

God of power and mercy,
in love you sent your Son
that we might be cleansed of sin
and live with you forever.
Bless us as we gather to meditate on his suffering and death
that we may learn from his example
the way we should go.

We ask this through the same Christ, our Lord.

R. Amen.

Matthew 27: 22-23, 26

Pilate said to them, "Then what should I do with Jesus who is called the Messiah?" All of them said, "Let him be crucified!" Then he asked, "Why, what evil has he done?" But they shouted all the more, "Let him be crucified!" So he released Barabbas for them; and after flogging Jesus, he handed him over to be crucified.

Matthew 27: 27-31

Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus inside the praetorium and gathered the whole cohort around him. They stripped off his clothes and threw a scarlet military cloak about him. Weaving a crown out of thorns, they placed it on his head, and a reed in his right hand. And kneeling before him, they mocked him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" They spat upon him and took the reed and kept striking him on the head. And when they had mocked him, they stripped him of the cloak, dressed him in his own clothes, and led him off to crucify him.
