VASJ suspends men's varsity basketball head coach

CLEVELAND, Ohio – The Catholic Diocese of Cleveland has strict standards of conduct in place for all those who minister in our schools and parishes, ensuring a level of behavior that maintains Christian values. In keeping with these standards, Villa Angela–St. Joseph High School has suspended men's varsity basketball head coach Babe Kwasniak from his coaching duties for the remainder of the current basketball season over certain conduct that school administration determined constituted insubordination and unprofessional behavior toward an administrator.

Assistant coach Rollie Smith will lead the team throughout the remainder of this year's schedule.

Villa Angela-St. Joseph High School is a Catholic, comprehensive college-preparatory school rooted in the Ursuline and Marianist traditions and committed to the spiritual, academic, and personal growth of each student.
