Hospitality Ministers should be recruited to welcome the assembly as they arrive and to distribute worship aids.

At least two readers should be appointed to proclaim the reading(s), to read the Examination of Conscience, and to lead the Litany of Repentance. They are to be seated in the assembly.

Musician(s) and cantor(s) should lead the assembly in song. Instrumental music may be played during individual confession. (A list of music suggestions is included herein.)

A Lectionary should be readied with the appropriate readings.

Lighting may be subdued. Candle(s) should be lit at the ambo.

Stations for confessors should be prepared. Priests might stand or sit in isolated areas around the main body of the church to receive penitents. In this way, the communal nature of the rite is maintained. Candles may light these stations.

For the sake of simplicity, the presider alone or the presider and preacher could participate in the procession. Other priests could be seated in the sanctuary or in a reserved area before the liturgy begins.
OPENING HYMN

GREETING

Presider: Grace, mercy, and peace be with you from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior.

All: And with your spirit.

INTRODUCTION

in these or similar words

Presider: Time and time again, we have heard the words of sacred Scripture. Time and again, we have learned what God has done for us and how we are to live as followers of Christ.

Yet, time and again, those words have been drowned out by the messages of the world. In our sinfulness, we have pursued wealth instead of holiness, listened to commercials instead of the cries of the poor, focused on the famous instead of the outcast, practiced indifference instead of empathy, and listened to countless voices instead of the voice of Jesus.

In this Lenten season, Christ calls us to repentance. He calls us to a deeper appreciation of our baptism and to a deeper commitment to live in accord with his Gospel.

Tonight [today], he calls each of us to this sacrament, in order to be reminded how right it is to follow the law of the Lord. Once again, he offers us his saving mercy. In this time and in this place, let us be still, and listen to God’s voice.
OPENING PRAYER

Presider: Brothers and sisters,
God calls us to conversion.
Let us therefore ask him
for the grace of sincere repentance.

Silent prayer

Father of mercies and God of all consolation, you do not wish the sinner to die
but to be converted and live.
Come to the aid of your people,
that they may turn from their sins
and live for you alone.
May we be attentive to your word,
confess our sins, receive your forgiveness,
and always be grateful for your loving kindness.
Help us to grow into the fullness of Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

All: Amen.

GENERAL CONFESSION OF SIN

Presider: Brothers and sisters,
Let us call to mind the goodness of God our Father,
and acknowledge our sins,
so that we may receive his merciful forgiveness.

All:   I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done
and in what I have failed to do,
through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

LITANY OF REPENTANCE

Presider: The Lord is merciful.
He makes us clean of heart and leads us into his freedom
when we acknowledge our guilt.
Let us ask him to forgive us
and bind up the wounds inflicted by our sins.

Presider: You were sent with good news for the poor and healing for the contrite.

All: Lord, have mercy.

Presider: You came to call sinners, not the just.

All: Lord, have mercy.

Presider: You forgave the many sins of the woman who showed you great love.

All: Lord, have mercy.

Presider: You did not shun the company of outcasts and sinners.

All: Lord, have mercy.
Presider: You carried back to the fold the sheep that had strayed.

All: Lord, have mercy.

Presider: You did not condemn the woman taken in adultery, but sent her away in peace.

All: Lord, have mercy.

Presider: You called Zacchaeus to repentance and a new life.

All: Lord, have mercy.

Presider: You promised Paradise to the repentant thief.

All: Lord, have mercy.

Presider: You are always interceding for us at the right hand of the Father.

All: Lord, have mercy.

LORD’S PRAYER

Presider: Now, in obedience to Christ himself, let us join in prayer to the Father, asking him to forgive us as we forgive others.

All: Our Father,...

CONCLUDING PRAYER

Presider: Lord, draw near to your servants who in the presence of your Church confess that they are sinners. Through the ministry of the Church, free them from all sin so that renewed in spirit, they may give you thankful praise. Through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.
INDIVIDUAL CONFESSION OF SIN AND ABSOLUTION

The presider or other minister might tell the assembly where the confessors will be located. Some brief words regarding the manner of confessions should be given. The people may be encouraged to accept one of the penances which are found in the worship aid or the confessors may give a penance suited to the individual. The assembly may be advised to remain in church if there is to be a common ending. Quiet instrumental music might be played during this time.

PRAYER OF ABSOLUTION

Confessor: God, the Father of mercies, through the death and resurrection of his Son has reconciled the world to himself and sent the Holy Spirit among us for the forgiveness of sins; through the ministry of the Church, may God give you pardon and peace, and I absolve you from your sins in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Penitent: Amen.

FIRST READING

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Jeremiah

Thus says the LORD:

This is what I commanded my people:
    Listen to my voice;
    Then I will be your God and you shall be my people.

Walk in all the ways that I command you,
    so that you may prosper.

But they obeyed not, nor did they pay heed.
They walked in the hardness of their evil hearts and turned their backs, not their faces, to me.
From the day that your fathers left the land of Egypt even to this day,
    I have sent you untiringly all my servants and the prophets.
Yet they have not obeyed me nor paid heed;
    they have stiffened their necks and done worse than their fathers.
When you speak all these words to them,
    they will not listen to you either;
    when you call to them, they will not answer you.

Say to them:
    This is the nation that does not listen to the voice of the Lord, its God, or take correction.
Faithfulness has disappeared;
    the word itself is banished from their speech.

The word of the Lord.
RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 95:1-2, 6-11

R: If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Come, let us sing joyfully to the LORD;
   let us acclaim the Rock of our salvation.
Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving;
   let us joyfully sing psalms to him.

R: If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Come, let us bow down in worship;
   let us kneel before the LORD who made us.
For he is our God,
   and we are the people he shepherds, the flock he guides.

R: If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Oh, that today you would hear his voice:
   “Harden not your hearts as at Meribah,
      as in the day of Massah in the desert,
   Where your fathers tempted me;
      they tested me though they had seen my works.”

R: If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.
SECOND READING

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Ephesians

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ
with every spiritual blessing in the heavens, as he chose us in him, before the foundation of the world,
to be holy and without blemish before him.
In love he destined us for adoption to himself through Jesus Christ, in accord with the favor of his will,
for the praise of the glory of his grace that he granted us in the beloved.

In him we have redemption by his Blood,
the forgiveness of transgressions, in accord with the riches of his grace that he lavished upon us.
In all wisdom and insight, he has made known to us the mystery of his will in accord with his favor that he set forth in him as a plan for the fullness of times, to sum up all things in Christ, in heaven and on earth.

The word of the Lord.

VERSE BEFORE THE GOSPEL

John 6:63c, 68c

Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life;
you have the words of everlasting life.
A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Jesus answered the Jews:
“My Father is at work until now, so I am at work.”
For this reason the Jews tried all the more to kill him, because he not only broke the sabbath
but he also called God his own father, making himself equal to God.

Jesus answered and said to them,
“Amen, amen, I say to you, the Son cannot do anything on his own,
but only what he sees his father doing;
for what he does, his Son will do also.
For the Father loves his Son and shows him everything that he himself does,
and he will show him greater works than these,
so that you may be amazed.
For just as the Father raises the dead and gives life,
so also does the Son give life to whomever he wishes.
Nor does the Father judge anyone,
but he has given all judgment to his Son,
so that all may honor the Son just as they honor the Father.
Whoever does not honor the Son
does not honor the Father who sent him.
Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever hears my word and believes in the one who sent me has eternal life and will not come to condemnation, but has passed from death to life.
Amen, amen, I say to you, the hour is coming and is now here when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live. For just as the Father has life in himself, so also he gave to his Son the possession of life in himself. And he gave him power to exercise judgment, because he is the Son of Man. Do not be amazed at this, because the hour is coming in which all who are in the tombs will hear his voice and will come out, those who have done good deeds to the resurrection of life, but those who have done wicked deeds to the resurrection of condemnation.

“I cannot do anything on my own; I judge as I hear, and my judgment is just, because I do not seek my own will but the will of the one who sent me.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

Q. WHAT IS THE PROPER TIME FOR EASTER VIGIL?

A. On Saturday evening, April 11, the end of civil twilight (nightfall) will occur at various times throughout the country. Please consult the Naval Observatory website for the exact time near you – http://aa.usno.navy.mil/data/docs/RS-OneDay.php. The Easter Vigil celebration should not begin before nightfall, which is usually a half hour after sunset.

“The entire celebration of the Easter Vigil takes place at night. It should not begin before nightfall; it should end before daybreak on Sunday.” This rule is to be taken according to its strictest sense. Reprehensible are those abuses and practices that have crept into many places in violation of this ruling, whereby the Easter Vigil is celebrated at the same time of day that it is customary to celebrate anticipated Sunday Masses (Circular Letter Concerning the Preparation and Celebration of the Easter Feasts, no. 78. Congregation for Divine Worship, January 16, 1988, quoting the Roman Missal).

According to a most ancient tradition, this night is one of vigil for the Lord, and the Vigil celebrated during it, to commemorate that holy night when the Lord rose from the dead, is regarded as the mother of all holy vigils. For in that night, the Church keeps vigil, waiting for the resurrection of the Lord, and celebrates the sacraments of Christian initiation.

– Paschale Solemnitatis, no. 77
(quoting Exodus 12:42; St. Augustine, Sermon 219; and the Ceremonial of Bishops)

Q. THE WORD “TRIDUUM” MEANS “THREE DAYS.” WHAT ARE THE THREE DAYS OF THE TRIDUUM?

A. The three days of the Sacred Triduum are Sunday, Saturday, and Friday. Good Friday has a vigil, which we celebrate liturgically as the Evening Mass of the Lord’s Supper on Holy Thursday evening.

This seventy-two hour period is the most important celebration of our entire liturgical calendar; it begins on Holy Thursday evening and concludes with Vespers (Evening Prayer) on Easter Sunday. The Sacred Triduum is actually ONE liturgy over three days. We may go home and come back again, but we do not actually “begin” and “end” our daily celebrations.

Q. WHAT IS THE PROPER PLACE FOR THE PASCHAL CANDLE?

The paschal candle is a symbol for Christ, “the light of glory... scattering the darkness of our hearts and minds” (RM, Easter Vigil). It is to be a genuine candle, and its design and size should be in proportion to the sanctuary in which it will be placed.

During the Easter Vigil and throughout the Easter Season, the paschal candle is to be placed in the sanctuary, near the altar or the ambo. Placed at the ambo, it is as if Christ is teaching us and the neophytes (A. Nocent, The Liturgical Year).

After the Easter Season it is moved to a place of honor in the baptistery, for use in the celebration of baptism. (Often, in newer construction, receptacles for the candle are imbedded near the font.) In the celebration of a funeral, the paschal candle is placed near the coffin to indicate that the death of a Christian is one’s own passover. The paschal candle should not otherwise be lit nor placed inside the sanctuary outside the Easter season (Paschale Solemnitatis, 99).

Q. MAY WE USE MORE THAN ONE CROSS FOR THE VENERATION ON GOOD FRIDAY?

A. No. Only one Cross should be used for the veneration, as this contributes to the full symbolism of the rite. It should be a cross, not a crucifix, and it should be of sufficient size and beauty.

One or other of the forms found in the Roman rite may be followed. The rite should be carried out with the splendor worthy of the mystery of our salvation. Both the invitation pronounced at the unveiling of the Cross and the people’s response should be sung.

The cross is to be presented to each of the faithful for their adoration. “If, because of the large number of people, it is not possible for all to approach individually, the Priest, after some of the clergy and faithful have adored, takes the Cross and, standing in the middle before the altar, invites the people in a few words to adore the Holy Cross and afterwards holds the Cross elevated higher for a brief time, for the faithful to adore in silence” (Roman Missal 19).

Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth. (OR Alleluia)
In one Spirit we were all baptized into one body.

Veni, Sancte Spiritus

As the Father sent me, so I send you: receive the Holy Spirit.
“The period of purification and enlightenment, which the rite of election begins, customarily coincides with Lent. In the liturgy and liturgical catechesis of Lent the reminder of baptism already received or the preparation for its reception, as well as the theme of repentance, renew the entire community along with those being prepared to celebrate the paschal mystery in which each of the elect will share through the sacraments of initiation. For both the elect and the local community, therefore, the Lenten season is a time for spiritual recollection in preparation for the celebration of the paschal mystery” (RCIA 138).

“This is a period of more intense spiritual preparation, consisting more in interior reflection than catechetical instruction, and is intended to purify the hearts and minds of the elect” and to enlighten their minds and hearts “with a deeper knowledge of Christ the Savior” (RCIA 139).

Among these rites are the scrutinies, which are solemnly celebrated on the Third, Fourth, and Fifth Sundays of Lent. “The scrutinies are meant to uncover, then heal all that is weak, defective, or sinful in the hearts of the elect; to bring out, then strengthen all that is upright and good” (RCIA 141). In accord with ancient tradition, the readings of Year A may be used, with the traditional gospels of the Samaritan woman at the well, the man born blind, and the raising of Lazarus, respectively (cf. RCIA 146).

The presentations of the Creed and the Lord’s Prayer take place during the week following the First and Third Scrutiny (unless they have been celebrated earlier). “Thus, with the catechumenal formation of the elect completed, the Church lovingly entrusts to them the Creed and the Lord’s Prayer, the ancient texts that have always been regarded as expressing the heart of the Church’s faith and prayer” (RCIA 147). Ideally, the presentations should be celebrated within Mass, with the faithful present (cf. RCIA 157, 178).

The preparation rites on Holy Saturday are most proximate to the celebration of the sacraments of initiation and, as a rule, should not be omitted. Among these rites is the recitation of the Creed. Again, according to ancient custom, the Elect recite (“give back,” reeditio) the Creed which they had been given (“handing over,” traditio).

It is very important to remember that these rites are for the catechumens (Elect) only! Those who have been baptized “should not take part in rites intended for unbaptized catechumens” (USCCB, National Statutes for the Catechumenate, no. 31).

All: Victorious King, hear our prayer.

All: send into our hearts the fire of your Spirit as we proclaim your resurrection.

All: and the whole earth be filled with the knowledge of your glory.

All: and grant us rest from our labors in their company.

Presider: You have triumphed over death, your enemy;
All: that we may live only for you, victorious and immortal Lord.

All: and were raised up to the right hand of the Father,
in your goodness, welcome your brothers and sisters into the kingdom of your glory.

ABOUT THE FEDERATION OF DIOCESAN LITURGICAL COMMISSIONS

OUR MISSION

The Federation of Diocesan Liturgical Commissions was founded in 1969 by the Bishops’ Committee on the Liturgy in order to assist with the implementation of the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy and the revised liturgical books. Our mission remains the same. The members of our Federation continue to serve Bishops, clergy, and parish liturgists in our roles as directors of Offices of Worship and members of diocesan liturgical commissions.

We hope this free resource will be of benefit to you and to your parish. Other publications, including books, pamphlets, and downloadable bulletin inserts, are available at www.fdlc.org/publications. Most are available in English and Spanish.

FORMATION

We also provide opportunities for liturgical formation. In 2016, we conducted thirty-two nationwide workshops on the revised Rite of Celebrating Matrimony and provided resources for similar diocesan offerings. In 2018, we conducted nationwide workshops on the revised Misal Romano. Formation on Christian initiation is always available, including a fourteen-topic series on The Rite of Christian initiation of Adults and other resources on the recently revised Order of Baptism of Children.

PRIVILEGES OF MEMBERSHIP

Associate Members are entitled to online resources, discounts on publications, and discounts to national meetings. For more information on Associate Membership, please visit www.fdlc.org/membership.
