CHRISM MASS

INTROIT

Dilexisti iustitiam, et odisti iniquitatem:
propterea unxit te Deus, Deus tuus,
oleo lætitiæ præ consortibus tuis.

You have loved justice and hated iniquity;
therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness above your companions.

PENITENTIAL ACT

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (We strike our breast during the line)
through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault, therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

FIRST READING

The spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me, because the LORD has anointed me; he has sent me to bring glad tidings to the lowly, to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives and release to the prisoners, to announce a year of favor from the LORD and a day of vindication by our God, to comfort all who mourn; to place on those who mourn in Zion a diadem instead of ashes, to give them oil of gladness in place of mourning, a glorious mantle instead of a listless spirit. You yourselves shall be named priests of the LORD, ministers of our God shall you be called. I will give them their recompense faithfully, a lasting covenant I will make with them. Their descendants shall be renowned among the nations, and their offspring among the peoples; all who see them shall acknowledge them as a race the LORD has blessed.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 89:4-5, 16-17

Mary Frances Reza

SECOND READING

Grace to you and peace from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead and ruler of the kings of the earth. To him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by his Blood, who has made us into a Kingdom, priests for his God and Father, to him be glory and power forever and ever. Amen.

Behold, he is coming amid the clouds, and every eye will see him, even those who pierced him. All the peoples of the earth will lament him. Yes. Amen.

“I am the Alpha and the Omega,” says the Lord God, “the one who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty.”

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Praise and Honor to You

Ronald F. Krisman
Luke 4:16-21

Jesus came to Nazareth, where he had grown up, and went according to his custom into the synagogue on the sabbath day. He stood up to read and was handed a scroll of the prophet Isaiah. He unrolled the scroll and found the passage where it was written: “The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord.”

Rolling up the scroll, he handed it back to the attendant and sat down, and the eyes of all in the synagogue looked intently at him. He said to them, “Today this scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing.”

BLESSING OF THE OILS

© Omnia Sancta Olea

Refrain:

Omnia Sancta Olea, Omnia Sancta Olea,

Omnia Sancta Olea!

Choir:

Bless the Oil of the Sick!

Through this holy anointing may the Lord in his love and mercy help us with the grace of the Holy Spirit.

May the Lord who frees us from sin, save us and raise us up.

Bless the Oil of the Catechumens!

We are anointed with the Oil of salvation in the name of Christ our Savior

He strengthens us with his power now and for ever.

Bless this Sacred Chrism!

God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ has freed us from sin and given us a new birth by water and the Holy Spirit.

He has anointed us with the Chrism of salvation.

As Christ was anointed prophet, priest, and king, so may we live as members of his body sharing life everlasting.
The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor.

He hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovery of sight to the blind, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord, to give unto them that mourn a garland of ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness, that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord that he might be glorified.

For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth, so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before the nations.

DISTRIBUTION OF HOLY COMMUNION

For those unable to receive the Blessed Sacrament at Mass, the ardent desire to receive Jesus in the Sacrament allows you to share in the graces of Christ’s sacrifice:

O my Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love you above all things, and I desire to receive you into my soul.
Since I cannot receive you sacramentally at this moment, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace you as if you were already there, and I united myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you.
Amen
